Trans-Atlantic Flight Ends In Crash During Night

PILOTS HAVE CLOSE CALL WITH DEATH

Plane Is Completely Demolished in Landing in Forest on Brazil Coast
ONE FLYER INJURED
News of Crash Comes After 12 Hours Suspense in Which No Word Heard

BAHIA, Brazil, Dec. 17.—(UP)—The flight of Lieutenant Colonel Tadeo Larre Borges and Captain Leon Challe from Spain to South America ended during the night in a crash in the Brazilian coastal forests where their airplane was demolished.

The skill and courage of their flight across the South Atlantic ocean was little less than the miracle of their escape from death in the wreckage of the big plane when it rushed to a final landing near the little town of Santo Antonio, some 30 miles from the coast.

Captain Challe, French companion of the Uruguayan flier, was slightly injured, but Larre Borges was not hurt. Aviation officials were amazed that the fliers escaped so easily in the dense forest region of Maracuja on the outskirts of Santo Antonio.

The airplane had covered a direct line distance of approximately 3640 miles and the great strain of flight over the ocean was behind when it reached the northwestern tip of the continent last night. The craft was about 3700 miles out of Seville when it crashed.

The news of the crash came at a moment when the entire South American coast from Natal—some 65 miles from Santo Antonio—to Buenos Aires was anxiously awaiting word after 12 hours in which the plane's radio had been silent.

First advices raised the fear that the fliers had been seriously injured and officials at Natal, Pernambuco, Rio de Janeiro and Bahia made hurried arrangements to dispatch medical aid. Airplanes left Pernambuco and Rio de Janeiro and automobile ambulances were sent from Natal and other points.

In Bahia, Rio de Janeiro, Buenos Aires and Montevideo there were cheering crowds to hail the news of the arrival in South America and the greatly desired word that both had escaped lightly in the crash. Larre Borges' wife and six children heard the news in Montevideo where crowds had waited tirelessly throughout the night for word of the plane.

Larre Borges and Challe went to Santo Antonio early today and sent telegrams to Uruguayan government officials. The Uruguayan flier returned almost immediately to the scene of the accident while Challe was treated for his injuries.

Violet Rays Wins Decree For Husband

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 17.—(UP)—It wasn't her soggy biscuits or her extravagance or any other of the familiar reasons assigned for domestic warfare that won a divorce for T. F. Combs.

It was ultra-violet rays. When he returned home one day, Combs told Judge Schauer, he found the neighbors excited about something in his back yard.

"I investigated," he said, "and there was my wife taking a sun bath. When I suggested she don a few clothes, she told me that her health was of more consequence than my feelings and that she must have her ultra-violet rays at all costs."

FIRST TRYOUTS IN REGISTER'S CONTEST HELD

Orange High School Holds Its Oratory Eliminations on Monday

THE TRYOUTS in the Orange union high school yesterday afternoon for the elimination of part of the contestants in the oratorical contest resulted in the selection of Ruth Prentiss, Wesley Hartman, John Tomblin, Harold Stanfield and Dulois Green as the winners in the first contest for the selection of the school representative to take part in the county wide contest which is being sponsored by the Register.

A large crowd was reported to be present at the first elimination yesterday in which 15 students had entered. The successful five were chosen on a vote of the judges, Ross L. Taylor, head of the oral English department of the school, and M. M. Fishback, assistant principal.

The school representative will be chosen from the five winners at yesterday's contest in a school final which is scheduled for the second week in January. The subject of the contests as specified by the Register, is "The Citizen's Obligation to the Eighteenth Amendment."

Nine other schools are working on the contest and will be represented in the divisional and final contests in February.

BOB SHULER, IN ADDRESS IN SANTA ANA SAYS CHURCH HAS LOST FAITH IN GOD'S POWER

With the ministerial vigor and inexpressible spirit for which he is noted throughout California, the Rev. R. P. (Bob) Shuler, pastor of the Trinity Methodist church of Los Angeles, addressed a crowd of 800 Santa Ana citizens at the Ebell clubhouse auditorium last night. The service marked the opening of the fifth week of the revival campaign being conducted here by the First First Church of the Nazarene and the text for the "best loved and most hated" minister's forceful sermon was taken from the verse, "What God hath cleansed that call not thou common."

"We are living the greatest miracle working age that the world has ever known," asserted the Rev. Mr. Shuler. "I'm not talking about physical miracles, but I'm talking especially of the miracles being wrought in the hearts and souls of men. We are living in a great spiritual age so far as the kingdom of God is concerned, and miracles in hearts

60 MINERS ARE SUFFOCATED IN SHAFT OF MINE

Bodies Brought to Surface From 5000 Foot Level In Oklahoma

BULLETIN
McALESTER, Okla., Dec. 17.—(UP)—The bodies of sixty miners entombed by a blast in the Old Town mine near here were brought to the surface by rescuers at 3 p. m. today.

A. Jay Putterbaugh, president of the McAlester Fuel company, who led the rescue work, told the United Press that the 60 men were dead, suffocated by the deadly gas that filled the 5000 foot level of mine.

Two of the miners were alive. Putterbaugh said he believed all had been accounted for although he had no definite check whether 63 or 65 were in the mine. It was reported 65 were entombed.

John Parker was found dead at the 3500 foot level earlier.

Officials of the Red Cross notified Governor Holloway, asking him to issue a call for a relief fund of $20,000 to care for wives and children of the men who met their doom 5000 feet below the surface.

Forty-two of the 60 dead were married and about 176 children were left fatherless, Putterbaugh said.

Clara Bow Taken To Home; Wedding Slated For April

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 17.—(UP)—Clara Bow, red headed screen star, was recuperating at her home today, having been removed in an ambulance from the Sylvan Lodge hospital, where she had been a patient for some time. Miss Bow was said to be entirely out of danger after a recent operation.

The scheduled marriage of the film actress to Harry Richman in New York January 1 has been postponed to some time in April.

CHINESE GENERAL REPORTED SUICIDE

SHANGHAI, Dec. 17.—(UP)—General Chang Fa-Kwei, leader of the revolutionary divisions which were repelled in an attack on Canton last week, was reported a suicide and a casualty of enemy guns in unconfirmed reports circulated throughout China today.

One story said that the revolutionary leader had committed suicide because of the failure of his attempt to capture Canton. Another reported he had been wounded by Cantonese troops who are pursuing the remnants of the divisions back northward from Canton.

There was no confirmation of any of the reports.

Reduction In Taxes To Aid Xmas Business

President Hopes to Make It An Annual Event to Cut Down Taxation

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.—(UP)—Federal income taxes have been reduced. The reduction amount to 66 2-3 percent to the smallest income taxpayer and will save individuals about $70,000,000 and corporations approximately $90,000,000.

Administration officials and legislators, who rushed the one percent rate reduction through to final enactment in the record time of 14 days, expect the "Christmas gift" to stimulate business considerably, particularly since it has been passed before the 1930 budgets of individuals and corporations are completed.

President Hoover signed the Hawley-Smoot resolution, directing Secretary of Treasury Mellon to collect one percent less than the regular rates on normal individual and corporation incomes, late yesterday. The resolution applies only to 1929 incomes, returns on which, together with first payments, are due next March 15.

It is the first of what President Hoover and Secretary Mellon hope will be an annual series of tax cuts under a flexible plan.

The $160,000,000 tax reduction differs from all previous revenue reductions in the nation's history. In that it shaves taxes only on incomes of 1929. Unless congress acts again next year the rates now in effect will automatically be restored.

Individuals with net incomes of $4000 or less a year, after reduction of exemption, now pay 1 1-2 percent. Under the resolution, they will pay only 1-2 of one percent next March on 1929 incomes. Similarly, the $400 to $5000 class will pay only two percent instead of three. The next bracket will pay four percent instead of five.

All up the line to the million dollar income tax payer, progressively smaller reductions are granted, although the surtax applied to larger incomes is not reduced. The millionaire's reduction comes on the normal tax payments on the first few thousand dollars.

Corporation incomes uniformly will be reduced from the present flat rate of 12 1-2 percent to 11 1-2 percent.

Both President Hoover and Mellon held out hope in their annual reports for further tax reductions continuing in effect, or even reducing, the rates established by the present bill.

Treasury revenues did not justify permanent tax reduction now, owing to uncertainty of what the stock market crash may cost the government, and other factors, Mellon explained. For this reason, the treasury has proposed a flexible tax system by which the income tax rates would be established by congress at close of each year.

STEEL COMPANIES ON GREAT COMBINE

NEW YORK, Dec. 17.—(UP)—Formation of a great steel combine with total assets of more than $400,000,000 is under way. Wall street heard today.

The new organization is expected to include the various companies in which Cyrus S. Eaton, of Cleveland, is interested.

Nearly 12 companies are involved and their total ingot capacity is expected to be nearly 5,000,000 tons annually, more than double that of the Youngstown Sheet & Tube company, the nation's third largest producer.

CONGRESS GETS DOWN TO HARD WORK ON BILLS

Farm Interests Urge Increase of Federal Aid to States for Highways

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.—(UP)—Work on various phases of President Hoover's legislative program kept congress busy today.

Indications were several bills would be passed and sent to the White House for signature before the Christmas adjournment Saturday. The $160,000,000 tax reduction already has been enacted as the first law of the regular session.

The Porter resolution for a commission to investigate Haitian conditions was brought out of committee and action by the house on it was planned for tomorrow. The resolution was changed to limit membership on the commission to seven and require a report in six months.

The senate took up again the appointment of Albert L. Watson to be federal judge for middle Pennsylvania and Senator Walsh, Democrat, Montana, in a long speech challenged Watson's fitness because of his actions in election cases in 1926. The house meanwhile took up the agricultural department supply bill.

Chairman Smoot of the senate finance committee promised that the $14,000,000 bill for expanding veterans hospital facilities, passed by the house yesterday, would be taken up tomorrow by his committee.

Mrs. Ruth Hanna McCormick, Republican, congresswoman from Illinois, was initiated as a member of the house naval committee. She and Ruth Bryan Owen, Democrat, Florida, who was placed on the foreign affairs committee, were the only women to be given important posts in this congress.

With bills extending the radio commission's line indefinitely passed yesterday by both houses, Attorney Mantion Davis of the Radio Corporation of America went before the Senate Radio investigation committee and replied to charges of monopoly by charging that the Radio corporation's detractors were lobbyists.

The president's plan for stimulation of business by increasing government building was advanced by an unanimous favorable senate committee report on the $9,740,000 supreme court building bill, passed by the house yesterday.

The committee also promised to take up tomorrow the $239,000,000 bill increasing federal building programs in all the states and the district of Columbia.

The senate cotton price investigating committee got cheerful news from W. L. Clayton, head of one of the largest cotton firms in the world, who predicted more active buying by spinners after Christmas.

Representatives of Louisiana cotton growers asked for government regulation of the futures market on cotton.

Business and farm interests went before the house roads committee and urged the federal aid to states for highways be increased from the present $75,000,000 to $150,000,000 a year.

RICHARDSON OR FITTS WILL BE CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 17.—(UP)—Either Friend W. Richardson, former governor of California, or Burton Fitts, district attorney of Los Angeles county, will be a candidate for governor in the next election, it was announced here today after a conference between the men.

"You may say that either Fitts or myself will be a candidate," Richardson told newspapermen. "A decision will be made within several days. In no case will we both run."

"I have no statement to make at this time," Fitts said,

Clerk Forced To Turn Cash Over To Thug

Store Crowded with Customers as Highwayman Points Gun at Cashier

AFTER WAITING calmly in line with a dozen or more customers to pay for their groceries at the Piggly Wiggly grocery store, 408 West Fourth street, a blond bareheaded bandit, armed with a bright automatic pistol, early last night, held up William C. Griffin, cashier, and after robbing the cash register of $170, forced Griffin and a clerk, E. Stevens, to allow him to escape through a rear door.

The store was crowded with persons at the time of the hold-up, but there were no more than five or six who actually saw the holdup, it was reported.

Persons lined up on both sides of the cashier, saw the man draw his pistol and take the money, but there were some 15 or more in the back part of the grocery store who were never aware that the place was being robbed.

The holdup was the most daring reported to police here this year. After the bandit disappeared from the rear door, he vanished, and not a trace of him has been found, police reported today.

Slightly in a hurry, but at all times very calm, the robber overlooked the small change and the checks in the cash register, which probably amounted to $100, it was said. He seemed content with the wad of bills he scooped up when Griffin handed them over.

Police announced today they were working on a clew that looked important, but did not divulge the nature of it.

According to a statement made by Griffin, he was busy waiting on a line of customers, who were coming out of the store with their grocery parcels in their arms. The bandit walked up and laid two bars of soap and a box of matches on the counter. Griffin started to "check him out" when the bandit said: "Hand over all your money."

Griffin looked up, smiled and hesitated. "Hurry up," the man ordered. Griffin then turned around

TO CALL ELECTION ON JAYCEE PROTEST

AT 2:15 this afternoon, the board of supervisors accepted the petitions from Anaheim and Brea-Olinda union high school districts, protesting their annexation to the Fullerton junior college district, and ordered the district attorney's office to prepare a resolution to be adopted next Tuesday calling an election on the matter in the two protesting districts. The law provides that the election on the matter in the two protesting districts. The law provides that the election must be held in the next 30 days.

This was the second step in the attempt to create a union junior college district in the north part of the county and represented a victory for those opposed to combining with Fullerton for the creation of such a project. The election will now finally determine whether or not the districts will be attached to Fullerton. The petitions, as provided by law, had to carry the signatures of at least 20 per cent of the qualified voters of the district. In order to throw the decision of the matter into the hands of the voters.

7717 Students Close Books On Wednesday

Tomorrow afternoon 7717 students in the Santa Ana city schools will close their books with more or less relief as they begin a Christmas vacation which will continue until January 2.

The holiday vacation will begin at this time in order to give the 350 instructors of the city an opportunity to attend the institute in Los Angeles December 18, 19 and 20. The institute is for the southern section of California teachers and it is expected that practically all of the teachers in the city will attend, it was said at the office of the board of education this morning.

STATE CABINET HOLDING FINAL MEET OF YEAR

Governor's Official Family Give Account of Year's Work at Parley

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 17.—(UP)—Twelve of the 13 members of Governor Young's cabinet convened here today to give a final account of their stewardship for 1929. The only absent director was Vierling Kersey, state superintendent of public instruction, now in Washington, D. C., to attend a convention of state school executives.

A state deportation party, consisting of 56 mental patients and 60 boys from the Preston school, will leave for middle western and eastern points December 18, it was reported by Earl E. Jensen, director of institutions. The party will be supervised by 32 persons, including the state deportation agent and two physicians.

"Although the party will cost the state $15,755, it is estimated that the deportation of these 116 non-residents will save the state $179,684," said Jensen. "The saving is computed on the estimated institutional life of a mental case at 10 years and the average stay of a Preston boy at 14 months."

The six mental hospitals of the state now show an inmate population of 14,313 at the present time, Jensen said. This is approximately 1371 more than the state has adequate accommodations to handle.

During November the state division of real estate held 20 for-

LEGALITY OF INSTRUMENT QUESTIONED

City's Legal Authority to Report Back to Council Next Monday Evening

GRIFFITH GETS JOB

Bid on S. A. Boulevard Is $26,659 Less Than Estimates of Engineer

THE CITY COUNCIL, last night, awarded to the Griffith company the contract for opening and improving Santa Ana boulevard, and referred the recall petition filed by the Citizens' League to City Attorney Swanner for investigation as to its legal sufficiency. The city body was in session one-half hour.

The council chamber was packed with men and women who evidently were present in anticipation of an exciting session. Representatives of the Citizens' League and the Greater Santa Ana association were in attendance to watch the proceedings. If the crowd was present in the chamber with the expectation of a lively meeting they were disappointed, for not a word was uttered from the floor and the city council made its decisions and quickly dispatched motions disposing of the two important items of business as indicated.

For the convenience of representatives of firms bidding on the highway work, the council made the opening of bids the first order of the evening. The Griffith company bid was $282,900, $26,659 less than the city engineer's office estimated it would be. The bid includes everything connected with the job except acquisition of lands needed for the street. The engineer's office estimates this cost at $65,500. It is believed, however, that all costs incident to acquisition of the land will not exceed $50,000. In event this is the final figure, the highway program will be completed at a cost of $332,900.

Nine bids were submitted, the highest being $352,315, the offering of R. A. Watson. The offer next lowest to that of the Griffith company was submitted by Jovacevich and Price, $286,500. Other bids were as follows: George H. Oswald, $302,400; Peter Janich, $297,924; Wells and Bressler, $321,700; Drainage construction company, $295,300; Sander Peterson, $324,654; R. A. Watson, $352,315; H. M. Baruch, $324,654.

The successful bidder cannot sign the contract earlier than 10 days from yesterday and must sign within 15 days after that period. Work must start within 20 days after the contract is signed. The Griffith company is now building the State highway between Santa Ana and Anaheim, and it is anticipated this contract will be completed shortly after the first of the year, releasing the equipment and men for the work on the Santa Ana boulevard. Should the contractor avail himself of all the time permitted, he would start work about February 1. It is anticipated, however, that the company will get mal hearings on real estate complaints, resulting in the revocation of contracts totaling $302,002, according to E. Forrest Mitchell, director of the department of investment. Colonization deputies personally inspected 71 projects.

During the year, 66 new insurance companies were admitted to the state, of which 31 were fire companies, 16 casualty, 7 life, 11 mutual life and benefit associations and one fraternal.

Anticipating that the voters of California will approve the $20,000,000 bond act to complete the veterans farm and home purchase program, at the 1930 general election, applications will be received by the veterans welfare board early in 1930. John R. Quinn, director of military and veterans affairs, reported.

"By this plan, the board will for the first time be in a position to estimate the ultimate number of veterans seriously desiring aid," said Quinn. "At the close of the month of October, veterans had acquired equities in their farms and homes to the amount of $5,550,211."

STRIKE THREATENED BY MEXICO DRIVERS

MEXICO CITY, Dec. 17.—(UP)—The first reaction to Mexico's new penal code was seen today in the threatened general strike of chauffeurs, tram conductors and bus drivers, who are protesting the provision of the new law for six years imprisonment for the death of a pedestrian in which the driver is found guilty of homicide.

Representatives of the City Transport unions conferred and urged a general city-wide strike of one day's duration with the possibility that it might be prolonged indefinitely until law is repealed.

Tokyo Arranges Reception for Two Hollywood Stars

TOKYO, Dec. 17.—(UP)—Arrangements were being completed today for an official government reception in honor of Douglas Fairbanks and his wife, Mary Pickford, who are due to arrive here tomorrow.

The stars are traveling through Japan on a round the world tour, with police guards protecting them from the enthusiasm of the monstrous crowds that have turned out to greet them in every city and town.

Hundreds of tickets, priced at $5 each, have been sold for tomorrow's reception.

BATTLE OVER DISPOSAL OF SANTA ANA STORM WATERS TAKEN BEFORE GRAND JURY

Activities in and near the grand jury room in the courthouse today indicated that a searching investigation of the complaints previously reported to have been lodged with that body by Steve Grisct, head of the Delphi drainage district, was being conducted.

The district, it is reported, is attempting to get action to force the city of Santa Ana to construct a storm drain or provide in some other way for the disposal of surface water from Santa Ana that is now being carried through the ditches of the drainage district.

Those present in the courtroom today who were to appear before the grand jury and tell the story of the controversy included Frank Purinton, mayor; Stanley Goode, W. J. Kelly, Homer Chaney and J. L. McBride, city trustees; Clyde Jenken, city engineer; J. C. Ellis and F. C. Planchon, directors of the drainage district; Mac O. Robbins, secretary; W. W. Hoy, engineer, and R. C. Mize, attorney. Grisct was unable to be present today as he is serving on a federal grand jury in Los Angeles.

The district formerly had a contract with the city of Santa Ana, which expired over a year ago, providing that the storm waters of the south part of the city could be run through the ditches of the district under certain conditions. The contract covered a period of five years and upon its expiration the district served notice on the city that it could not be renewed.

This, it is understood, was due to a new contract between the district and the Irvine company, onto whose land the water flows after leaving the district, which provided that the only waters the district could discharge onto the Irvine property were the natural waters from the lands within the boundaries of the district.

It is reported that estimates of the cost of the construction of a storm drain to take for water from Santa Ana, as announced by the city engineer, run from $500,000 to $600,000 and belief has been expressed in some quarters that the action at that time is taken to call the attention of citizens to certain expenditures being made when other expensive projects are looming for settlement.

The water from Santa Ana, which is being discharged through the ditches of the drainage district, is increasing every year, it is alleged, caused by the growth of the city and the addition of more pavements.

COUNCIL LETS CONTRACT FOR NEW HIGHWAY

on the job in the shortest time possible.

In certifying to the city council the sufficiency of the recall petition as concerned the number of registered voters signing, City Clerk E. L. Vegely recited that when the 152 petitions were filed with him they bore the names of 2296 voters and that checking the names against the great register reduced the number to 1835. The number was sufficient because it represented more than 25 per cent of the number of voters casting ballots at the last city election, the highest vote received by any of the council candidates at the time approximating 5700. As there was some question as to authority for anyone to remove his name from the petition after it was filed with the city clerk, Vegely did not scratch the names of some 30 or 40 persons who had asked that their names be removed from the petition.

Immediately following presentation of the petition, the document was referred to the city attorney for investigation as to its legality with instructions to report, next Monday night, his decision.

While City Attorney Swanner in no way publicly expressed his opinion last night on the legal sufficiency of the petition, the fact that the instrument was referred to him was accepted as indication that he had advised the council that in his opinion it was not in legal form.

The principal point involved concerns the grouping of all five members of the council under the one charge. Swanner has hinted publicly he is of the opinion that the charges on which the petition is based should have been made and repeated against each individual member of the council.

After giving the names of the five members of the council—F. L. Purinton, Homer Chaney, W. J. Kelly, Stanley Goode and J. L. McBride—the petition says:

"Grounds upon which the recall of said persons is sought are that they have assumed an arbitrary and dictatorial attitude toward the citizens of Santa Ana, and have used bad judgment in the management of city affairs."

The city attorney has pointed out that the recall law provides that ballots for such an election must contain under the name of such officer a statement of the charges upon which removal is sought, the statement to be limited to 200 words. The officer against whom the recall is directed has opportunity to set forth reasons for his action on the matter upon which the recall is based. He also is limited to 200 words.

It was pointed out that in stating the grounds upon which removal of the five men is sought, the petition says "they" and does not use the phrase "and each of them." Swanner has intimated his belief that it would be impossible to conform with the law by preparing a statement for the ballot containing the charge, and for an individual member to set forth a defense, because each is not specifically charged with the offense.

Candidates for councilmen are nominated by wards, there being five wards in the city, but all of the candidates are voted on by the city at large.

Pointing out this fact, Horace Head, attorney for the group of ranchers involved in the injunction suit to restrain the city of Santa Ana from building a bridge across the Santa Ana river, proposed as a part of the improvement program in connection with the opening of the new highway, today said he believed the petition was in legal form. Stating that he had not made an investigation of the law on the point involved, Head said that in an off-

Prison Board Not To Act On Mooney Case For 3 Months

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 17.—(UP)—Members of the state pardon board now considering Thomas Mooney's application for a pardon indicated today that it would probably be three months before they could reach any conclusion as to the merits of his appeal.

A mass of documentary evidence is in the hands of the board to be read over before that body can act.

Included in the evidence is a transcript of the trial proceedings growing out of the 1916 preparedness day bombing outrage for which Mooney and Warren Billings were convicted.

WATCHMAN DIES IN PLANT EXPLOSIONS

KENOSHA, Wis., Dec. 17.—(UP)—Two explosions in the Wisconsin Oxygen and Hydrogen company plant early today killed one man, wrecked the structure and endangered the lives of 10 others.

A seared body, believed to be that of Joseph Robel, night watchman, was found dangling from the rafters of the wrecked building. He was the only person known to have been in the building at the time of the first blast, which tore the roof off the plant.

The second explosion followed in five minutes, when eight firemen and two policemen were about to enter the plant. They were thrown down but not injured.

Witnesses said flames which accompanied the explosions shot 300 feet into the air.

INVITE DIPLOMATS TO MEET

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.—(UP)—Senator Shortridge, Republican, California, has formally invited the 21 diplomatic representatives here of the Pan-American union members and also the Canadian minister to attend the Pan-American reciprocal trade conference to be held at Sacramento, Calif., August 25-30 next year. The invitation was made on behalf of the invitation from Governor Young of California.

hand opinion he would say that the petition is legally sufficient.

"In my opinion disregard of the petition would not be in accordance with the law, and that its rejection because the charge is not made against each individual member would be merely a technical excuse for avoiding the recall," Head said. "The fact that the councilmen are elected by the people at large makes them public officers of the city and not the particular representative of the ward from which they are chosen. This situation, I believe, makes it possible for all the members to be joined in one charge."

to Stevens and said: "I guess I'll have to give up the money." Stevens saw the gun and the two then aided the bandit in scooping up the cash.

"Now, both of you, show me to the back door," the bandit ordered. The crowd of customers, in line, gave way and the holdup man and the two employees went to the back of the store. Stevens went to get a key to unlock the back door and was challenged, but was allowed to go ahead when he explained to the man that the door was locked.

On reaching the door, the bandit informed his victims that he had a "buddy" waiting just outside, and then darted off in the darkness after ordering Stevens and Griffin to shut the heavy back door, which they did, just as the man was seen to run towards Birch street, down the alley.

ISSUES WARNING

Chief of Police L. C. Rogers today issued a warning to Santa Ana merchants to be on the lookout for holdup men.

"Keep as little money in the cash register as possible," was part of the warning given. Following the holdup of the Piggy Wiggy store on West Fourth street last night, when $170 was stolen by a cool bandit, Rogers is afraid that other such "jobs" may be staged here during the Christmas season.

Special precautions are being taken by officers to thwart holdups in the downtown district of the city, Rogers said, but stated that he did not care to divulge how it was being done.

"There are a great many strangers in the city, many persons who do not look 'good' to the police, therefore I think it is necessary that the merchants be as careful as possible with their funds," Rogers said.

HOME MUTUAL

Really, you can't blame her. Who wouldn't drag her friends out into the kitchen to show off her new General Electric Refrigerator? There it stands, gleaming white, strong as a safe, incredibly quiet.

For a gift that gives all-year usefulness, that makes every-day tasks lighter, that safeguards health, the General Electric is really ideal. It makes a generous supply of ice cubes and freezes those luscious desserts which every hostess enjoys serving.

When you buy a General Electric you are choosing the one and only electric refrigerator which has an all-steel cabinet. And all the mechanism is hermetically sealed in a steel casing mounted on top . . . out of the way, dust-proof, never needs oiling . . . leaving the greatest cabinet area for food storage. It has an accessible freezing regulator which allows you to control freezing-speeds. It causes no radio interference.

$10.29 DOWN AND $10.29 A MONTH
Startling new terms make it wasteful not to enjoy the convenience and economies of a General Electric Refrigerator. See this ideal Christmas gift today.

'LION' PICTURE WILL BE SHOWN TO BOYS OF Y.

The great African lion pictures, "Simba," made by Mr. and Mrs. Martin Johnson over a period of four years in their expedition to the dark continent for study of wild animals, is the treat prepared for the boys of the Y. M. C. A. at their monthly social, which is scheduled for 7:30 next Saturday night in the Y.

Y. officials have told the boys that they may bring their parents if they desire. It is not a public event, however, and it was announced by R. C. Smedley that if the crowd was too large to be handled, attendance would be limited to boys only. The entertainment will be given in the gymnasium, which will accommodate between 400 and 500 persons.

In addition to the picture, the program will include Christmas music and other entertainment. An offering will be received at the door to help defray the expense of bringing the eight-reel film here for the boys' entertainment.

The story of the Johnson expedition to Africa and many of their interesting experiences with lions there has just been completed in The Register.

NEW YORK, Dec. 17.—Madison Square Garden's first world's championship fight since the death of Tex Rickard will be staged Friday night.

EARLY FLYING DAYS WILL BE SHOWN IN FILM

One of the most interesting meetings which the Eddie Martin Pilots' association has promoted this year will be held at 7:30 tomorrow night in Ketter's cafe, George E. Irvin, of the Richfield Oil company, will present the feature of the program which is to be a movie showing the progress of aviation.

The shots include those of the Wright brothers, flying in Le Mans, France, in 1908, the first sustained flight ever made by man; the first passenger-carrying flight, which took place from the same field during that year; scenes of flights made by Farnham and Blot and other early pioneers, including some of Lincoln Beachey, the first man who ever deliberately stunted a plane.

Irvin also has collected pictures of other historical events in aviation and will show movies of the Dornier Wahl, 100-passenger flying boat with twelve 500-horsepower engines, and scenes of the actual refueling operations during the record establishing sustained flight of the "Angeleno." He carries transport license No. 919 and has had considerable army experience as well as commercial flying and teaching experience.

A man from the Aero corporation will talk briefly on certain specialized phases of the aviation business.

Health and Community Prosperity

By K. H. SUTHERLAND, M. D.
County Health Officer

Illness in any community is an economic handicap to that community as well as to the individual directly concerned. Much of the present day illness could be prevented if proper attention was given to recognized health laws and procedures, and it is fitting that those interested in the economic progress of the district should lend support to any authentic community health program directed toward this end.

Recognizing this fact, the various chambers of commerce of the country backed by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States are emphasizing health promotion during the next coming months.

When a man is ill unnecessarily or dies prematurely, the community and individual economic loss is especially deplorable. The man has been raised and educated in schools provided for him by the community, and during this time has received protection from sanitary facilities as well as from police and fire departments provided by public funds. When he achieves an earning capacity in his own right, he has a financial responsibility not only to his family but to his community as well. A loss naturally results when his life is cut off prematurely.

Great Monetary Loss

Let us suppose that a man 25 years develops pulmonary tuberculosis. His earnings cease, his expenses increase and possibly after illness of months or years he dies. From an economic standpoint a person dying from tuberculosis is a greater monetary loss to the community than a person who dies instantly, as for instance, one who is killed by an auto. For probably two years before the case of tuberculosis dies there is the expense of treating his disease, in addition to the fact that he is non-producing. If his income has been $2500 a year the conclusions reached by a prominent statistician show that the present worth of his future income, less expenses had he lived, would be $23,000. This sum is entirely lost, his expenses are increased while he lives and in addition the community may have to provide for his dependent family after his death.

In recent years the emphasis placed by official health agencies upon the practicability of tuberculosis prevention has been most effective and continues to be so. As has been frequently stated in the last one-quarter of a century the tuberculosis death rate has been cut more than one-half. This fact at the present time results in a saving of approximately 130,000 lives a year. Comparing the tuberculosis death rate of 1900 with that of 1928, it has been estimated that the present per capita saving of human lives from decreased tuberculosis is as much as $2,000,000,000 a year.

Lower Death Rate

In 1915 the death rate in Orange county was 173.67 per 100,000 population and in 1928 was 73.81 per 100,000 population. These figures mean that modern health procedure has been the cause of saving approximately 131 lives during 1928, which would have died from tuberculosis had the rate of 1915 previously still held true. Figuring a little further, it will be seen that this saving of lives during 1928 represents an economic saving of almost $4,500,000. It would seem from these figures that community support for any scientific public health program is essential for economic prosperity.

The health department urges each citizen of Orange county to give attention to his own health by taking proper rest, by giving thought to a wholesome diet, and by avoiding unnecessary exposure to colds and acute respiratory infections, which if repeated too frequently may weaken his general resistance and make him susceptible to serious infections, such as tuberculosis.

If in spite of precautions a cold is contracted, the patient should place himself in the hands of his physician and realize that proper care at the beginning, even though it may mean loss of time from work or school, will many times save serious trouble in the end. The health department urges that those suffering from colds respect the rights of others, and that they protect their fellow citizens by not exposing them to such infections as they themselves may have contracted. We urge that the people of Orange county interest themselves in what their community health agencies are doing to promote health and that they give these organizations their interest, co-operation and support.

"IS WONDERFUL" SHE DECLARES

"It's just wonderful to have such splendid health again after five years' suffering—and I owe it all to Sargon!"
"My stomach was out of order, my food disagreed with me, and there was nearly always a severe pain in my right side. I suffered terribly with nervous headaches and biliousness and was habitually constipated. I tried diets and medicines, but continued to lose weight and strength until I started Sargon. Now the pain in my side is gone and I never have headaches. My stomach trouble is over and I am steadily gaining back my lost weight. I sleep fine, get up bright and cheerful and my whole system is strengthened. Sargon fills toned up my liver and completely overcame my constipation."—Mrs. Arie Taylor, 2120 Market St., San Francisco.

PROPOSED FIRE DISTRICT AREA TO BE MAPPED

Appointment of a committee to prepare a map showing the boundaries of the proposed district and to determine the sentiment of the people living therein prior to action leading to the petitioning of the county board of supervisors for the creation of a fire district was authorized at a meeting last night, in Orange, which was attended by 34 interested persons from the proposed district.

The group was addressed by Assistant Chief Johnson, of the Los Angeles county fire department, who advised concerning the legal steps leading to the formation of a district, types of equipment used and the method of working. Johnson advised the creation of a county wide district with sub-districts rather than a number of separate districts, stating that it would lead to more efficiency and less duplication of effort.

Frank Collins, president of the Villa Park Farm center, presided at the meeting last night. The district is proposed to include rural districts near Villa Park, El Modena and Orange.

HONOR MORROW AT Y. M. C. A. LUNCHEON

Honoring C. E. Morrow, one of the pioneer Y. M. C. A. workers in Orange county, who has been engaged in this service for the last eight years and who is secretary of the Orange Y. M. C. A., Y. secretaries of the county assembled at a luncheon today in Ketter's cafe.

Morrow is leaving Orange to assume charge of Y work in Eureka and the luncheon was in the nature of a farewell from his fellow workers in Orange county. Morrow plans to leave for Eureka Saturday.

During the morning the Y officials discussed plans for the various periods and activities next summer in the county Y camp near San Bernardino. Those present included A. J. Raltt, of Fullerton; Conrad Jongeward, Anaheim; D. H. Tibbals and R. C. Smedley, Santa Ana, and Earl E. Campbell, county chairman of the Y. M. C. A.

Sanitation Rules Are Outlined For County's Barbers

Sanitation rules, as affecting barber shops, were explained by C. E. Ryneason, secretary of the barbers' state board of examiners, who was the principal speaker at a meeting of Orange county barbers, last night, in the Labor temple, 415 West Fourth street.

In the last two years 550 barbers, who could not pass the California examinations, have come into the state from the outside, Ryneason declared, these barbers having been refused licenses.

Other activities of the board included the investigation of 1681 complaints from customers as to sanitation and other matters. As a result of these investigations, five barber shops in the vicinity of Santa Ana had been closed, the secretary said.

The member of the state board was brought here by A. H. Bower, secretary of the Santa Ana barbers' union. About 45 were present.

Court Notes

Two men were fined in police court yesterday on drunk charges. Frank Duron was fined $25 and Paul Wallace was given a fine of $10.

Charged with parking his car in a 10-minute zone longer than 10 minutes, L. M. Forcey, Santa Ana, was fined $1 in police court yesterday.

Three persons were given fines in police court yesterday on charges of parking their machines in restricted districts. They were L. A. Collier, W. C. May and C. H. Miller.

T. L. Harris, of Los Angeles, charged with driving an automobile while under the influence of liquor, was held to answer to the superior court from Justice Kenneth Morrison's court this morning at the conclusion of his preliminary examination. He was allowed bail of $500, which he made. Harris was arrested on Center street, Anaheim, several days ago.

A judgment for $661.43 is asked in an action filed in superior court by the Sun Oil company of California directed against Roy Hansen. The complaint alleges that that amount is due and unpaid on an agreement Hartman made to purchase certain oil well equipment at a price of $2500.

The case of Ignacio Rodriguez, charged with non-support, was set in Justice Kenneth Morrison's court this morning for 9 a. m., December 19. He was arrested yesterday on a bench warrant.

Charging that her husband deserted her immediately after marriage, Esther T. Valenzuela, yesterday filed suit for divorce from Frank Valenzuela. The complaint also alleges that the husband has failed to provide for his family. The plaintiff asks the custody of their child, payment of $60 per month for the support of herself and the child, court costs and $150 attorney fees.

The case of W. C. Golden vs. the Bank of Balboa, et al. is being tried today before Judge H. G. Ames in superior court. The action concerns title to property in Newport Beach.

The inventory and appraisal of the estate of Mathilda Michel, filed today by John N. Anderson, inheritance tax appraiser, shows that the estate consists of $24,087.47, which is the share due this estate from the estate of Henry Michel, now being administered in superior court.

MRS. TINGLEY, 86, DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Funeral services will be held at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, in the Harrell and Brown Funeral chapel, for Mrs. Eliza Ann Roberts Tingley, 86, who passed away Monday morning in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frances Carson, of Tustin.

The Rev. Harry Evan Owens, of the First Baptist church in Santa Ana will conduct the service.

Mrs. Tingley was a pioneer of this state, coming here from Kansas in 1887 with her five children and establishing a home for them in National City, San Diego county. She moved to Orange county in 1916.

Born in Platt county, Missouri, on July 28, 1843, Mrs. Tingley lived in that state and in Kansas during the early years of her life. She was married Dec. 15, 1867, to Joseph F. Tingley, a veteran of the Civil war, who passed away in 1880. Surviving Mrs. Tingley are one sister, Mrs. Emma Boyce, of Kansas, three sons, William Tingley, of Placer county, Calif.; Samuel E. Tingley, of Tustin, and Dr. Charles H. Tingley, of Santa Ana; two daughters, Mrs. Frances E. Carson, of Tustin, and Mrs. Olive W. Jones, of Idylwild, Calif., and 14 grandchildren and 20 great-grandchildren.

For many years Mrs. Tingley was an active member of the Presbyterian church in National City and later joined the Tustin Presbyterian church, taking an active part in the church work as long as her health permitted. She had been ill for a number of years.

Santa Pays H. B. Children Visit

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Dec. 17.—Santa Claus landed in an airplane on the beach at Huntington Beach at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon, with several hundred children watching his plane maneuver for a landing and finally dropping gracefully to the beach. A truck picked Santa Claus up and brought him to the business district, where he scattered gifts of candy and toys to the hundreds of children.

STRATFORD PLAYERS ARE COMING TO L. A.

Notice was received here today from the board of governors of the Shakespeare Memorial theater, at Stratford-on-Avon, relative to the second American tour of the company. The noted players will appear in Los Angeles from January 5 to 18 and will offer productions from the following repertoire:

"Romeo and Juliet," "King Richard and the Second," "Hamlet," "Macbeth," "Much Ado About Nothing," "Twelfth Night," "Julius Caesar," "A Midsummer Night's Dream" and "The Merry Wives of Windsor."

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lansdowne, prominent Santa Ana citizens who received word from friends in Stratford-on-Avon of the second tour of the Shakespearean dramatists, plan to attend the productions to be given in Los Angeles.

ORANGE GLEE CLUBS ARRANGE PROGRAM

ORANGE, Dec. 17.—The glee clubs of the Orange union high school will open the program tomorrow at an assembly sponsored by the Boys' forum and the Girls' league. The members of the clubs will sing "Come All Ye Faithful" and "O Little Town of Bethlehem." The selections to be played by the orchestra include "Salut d'Amour" and "Mecca."

The play which is to be presented is an adaptation of the old story, "Why the Chimes Rang," by F. L. Carter.

Members of the cast are Dorothy Alt, Mildred Stuthett, Curtice McCoy, Julia Bellows, Clarence Pargue, Glenn Miles, A. C. Myracle, Dorothy Kothe, Carl Allen, Iola Windeph, Glenn Robinson and Frances Barnett.

Legion Dance Set For December 31

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Dec. 17.—The American Legion dance at the beach pavilion here on the night of Dec. 31 is planned as a county-wide affair and New Year's watch party for members of the American Legion and their families. The dance is a benefit for former soldiers and families not otherwise provided for by the government.

About 600 tickets have been sold. There will be noisemakers provided. Dancing will continue until after midnight.

Virgil Westbrook Awarded $100 For Airport Drawing

SAN CLEMENTE, Dec. 17.—A San Clemente architect, Virgil Westbrook, won honors in the Lehigh Airport competition, the first American contest for designs of modern airports, according to word received from Raymond Hood, chairman of the jury of awards. Two hundred and fifty-seven architects from all parts of the nation entered the contest and 14 were declared winners. Westbrook was among the 12 honorable mentions and received $100 for his design.

First prize was won by A. C. Stimmerman and William H. Harrison, of Los Angeles, who submitted a joint design.

BALBOA GIRL WINS DOLL COMPETITION

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Dec. 17.—The annual doll dressing contest was conducted at the Huntington Beach union high school recently. There were 50 dolls entered in the contest and points were given for general appearance, sewing, artistry and originality of design. Miss Frances Gordon, of Balboa, was awarded first prize by the judges, who were members of the faculty. Miss Leila Davis, of Costa Mesa, won honorable mention. Miss Davis' doll was dressed in a Turkish costume.

The dolls will be on display at the high school until Wednesday, when they will be donated to patients at the Children's hospital.

DIRECTORS NAMED BY H. B. CHAMBER

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Dec. 17.—The chamber of commerce at its meeting held at noon Monday at the Golden Bear cafe, named J. S. Denny, C. N. Whittam and Mrs. Helen Buck as a committee to count the vote cast for directors. The count showed the following directors elected and they will meet in January and elect the officers of the club.

A. W. Frost, A. H. Dixon, W. S. Osborne, C. P. Patton, J. S. Farquhar, T. B. Talbert, R. C. Turner, J. S. Denny, W. H. Warner, W. A. Green, Harvey S. Young, F. E. Bundy, C. R. Furr, W. D. Young, J. S. Wynn.

Coughing At Public Gathering a Nuisance

A single cough will dim the hearing of a thousand ears, and afflict the offender with useless regret and embarrassment. Needless to say, for a few sips of good and reliable Foley's Honey and Tar Compound will so cover a sensitive throat with a soothing protective demulcent coating that irritations causing these annoying coughs are avoided. Fine also for those who use the voice constantly—preachers, lecturers, singers and teachers. Remember the name Foley's Honey and Tar Compound and ask for it. Parson's Drug Store, 4th and Broadway and Hinkley's Pharmacy, corner Main street and Washington avenue.—Adv.

DOCTOR TELLS NEED OF FUNDS IN T. B. WORK

"For every death from tuberculosis an average of 10 persons become infected," stated Dr. F. O. Kaps, prominent Santa Ana lung specialist, when interviewed today regarding the sale of Christmas seals in an effort to stamp out this dangerous disease in Orange county.

"And as children are very prone to become infected," he continued, "our activities should be directed at sub-standard children to build up an immunity to this dreaded disease that will protect them for their entire lives."

"The 95 who died in this county last year from tuberculosis, were the cause of 1000 infections. The Children's Health camp, located near Irvine park, is one of the most effective agencies in the halting of this disease and this camp is supported almost entirely by seal contributions."

"Halt this disease not only is of benefit to the parents themselves, but is the best known method of prevention of the spread of tuberculosis."

Newport Beach Council Opens Lido Isle Bids January 6

$1,600,000 TO BE SPENT FOR IMPROVEMENTS

NEWPORT BEACH, Dec. 17.—Bids for the $1,600,000 project for development of Lido Isle, in Newport bay, are scheduled to be opened by the city council of Newport Beach January 6, following Monday's meeting, when it was decided to re-advertise for the bids. The motion to re-advertise was made by Councilman Harry Williamson, after a letter concurring in this action had been read from W. C. Crittenden, chief owner of the Lido Isle Development company. The council, which had been divided on various occasions when Lido Isle matters were up, were unanimous in this instance.

This is one of the most pretentious development projects at present planned for the entire south coast. It includes a bridge between the mainland and the island, saving of sidewalks, streets and curbs, and water, electric light, sewer, gas and telephone connections. Everything will be underground except the electric light standards, and everything will be of the most modern design.

If bids are opened when the council meets January 6, as scheduled, the contract can be signed on or before January 21, and work can start soon after.

The city council also opened bids Monday evening for the $75,000 improvement on the Frick property in Balboa peninsula, which includes street improvements, lights, sewers and other utilities. There were eight bids, the lowest being by the Fleming Construction company of Los Angeles. They were referred to City Engineer R. L. Patterson, who will make a recommendation to the council Wednesday night, when it is expected the contract will be let.

The council adopted plans and specifications for the canal improvement project in West Newport, and January 13 was set as the date for receiving protests.

Mustard Gas Sends Boy To Hospital

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Dec. 17.—Beryl Cady, high school student, while scuffling with another student in the chemical laboratory Monday afternoon, upset a container of mustard gas. Cady almost fainted from the fumes and also suffered pain in his eyes and throat and had to be removed to a hospital. After receiving first aid treatment he was able to return to school and apparently has recovered. Several students were in the room when the accident occurred but did not suffer from the mustard gas.

BRIGHT FUTURE PREDICTED FOR COAST SECTION

SAN CLEMENTE, Dec. 17.—Seeing in Orange county's coast line the playground of the western world, Mort J. Donoghue, manager of development of the Pickwick Stages system, California Transit company and Southern Pacific Motor Transport company, spent the week end in San Clemente looking over this section of the state. Donoghue sees in San Clemente and the coast future business for the Pickwick stages.

Donoghue, at present in Los Angeles attending a hearing before the railroad commission in which his company is seeking the right to establish an all-coast route from Long Beach to San Diego, says Pickwick is aware of the future of the coast line of California and ready to serve the needs of the people. It will become the home of pleasure loving Californians and those seeking an ideal spot to spend a week end from the turmoil of the city, he believes.

Before becoming associated with that company he was managing editor of the San Francisco Bulletin, which paper has been merged with the Call. Donoghue was manager of the Vanderbilt Herald in San Francisco and the Sacramento Union at one time. He is vice president of the San Francisco Press club and at one time was secretary to Congressman McCormick.

LEMON ASSOCIATION PAYS COUNTY GROWERS $118,081

ORANGE, Dec. 17.—Final payments on the 1929 lemon crop were made by the Central Lemon association at Villa Park yesterday, $118,081.85 being paid out to growers. This sum does not include the payments on culls. The total returns for the year total $544,422.95. Returns from last year's crop totaled $459,000.

According to Roy Runnells, manager of the association, the year has been one of the best experienced in several seasons. Shipments this year reached 435 cars, 46 cars more than were sent out last season.

Final payments on culls will be made next year, it was said. Prospects for the coming year are good and indications are that the crop will be short, Runnells declared. The manager stated that the lemon market is still very satisfactory.

THIRD READING FOR BEACH RIG LAW ON JAN. 6

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Dec. 17.—Huntington Beach city trustees in passing on the second reading of the ordinance to rid the city of idle oil derricks, took one more step toward eliminating unsightly oil derricks over abandoned wells inside the city limits. The third and last step will be taken when the ordinance is adopted on third reading at the meeting January 6. The ordinance was passed as a resolution of the city council.

The council adopted a resolution of intention to call the bond election on the pier, and accepted the ordinance prepared by the city attorney providing for the election and bond issues. One bond issue will be for $50,000 for pier repairs and one bond issue for $50,000 for a 50-foot extension of the pier into deeper water beyond the breakers.

The ordinance against idle oil derricks was an unmistakable gesture to guide the city out of the forest of oil derricks in those sections where profitable wells are not being operated. The ordinance providing for pier improvements was a gesture toward fully capitalizing the beach and ocean front to make the city a coast and pleasure resort.

City Attorney L. W. Blodget, outlining the legal procedure as to the pier bonds, suggested that the first reading of the ordinance be given at the meeting January 6; that it be passed on second reading Jan. 13; that it be published January 16, January 23 and January 30 and that the bond election be held February 4, 1930.

Following the disposal of the pier matters and the oil derrick ordinance, Mayor Bowen took out his little notebook and questioned the city attorney, city engineer and city clerk as to minor matters that are pending.

On the matter of ridding the city of bad odors from oil rectifying plants and refineries, the city clerk reported that the county health department had informed him the odors were not a menace to health and hence the health department would not or could not do anything. City Clerk Charles R. Furr into whose hands correspondence on the matter with the county supervisors had been put, said that he had written the county supervisors a second letter and expected an answer within a few days.

On the matter of obtaining five feet off the parking in the center of Main street to be used in widening the street pavement, City Engineer Merwin Rosson said the Huntington Beach company had not received word from their San Francisco office as to whether or not the consent of that company would be given. He expected an answer within a few days.

In the matter of a waste water disposal plant for the oil field, the city engineer said a meeting would be held this week in Los Angeles at which time the engineers for the oil companies would report as to the cost. Oil separating reservoirs will be located under the plans recommended near Reservoir hill in the north city limits, it was stated.

The City Attorney had received some further reports and information relative to the title under which a half mile of ocean front or beach is to be sold to the city by the Huntington Beach company. The council decided to take up the matter unofficially at a meeting or conference held following the regular session. Indications are the title matter is progressing satisfactorily, it was stated, and it is expected the city will shortly acquire title to the beach.

SOCIETY TO ELECT

ORANGE, Dec. 17.—Officers will be elected at the next meeting of the Martha society of St. John's Lutheran church. This meeting has been set for January 9. Mrs. John Voberling is president of the organization.

PAST KIWANIS CHIEF SPEAKS IN FULLERTON

FULLERTON, Dec. 17.—"Kiwanis Education" provided the subject for an address by Charles Rhinehart, of San Diego, former international trustee and past district governor of the California-Nevada district of Kiwanis, at the meeting of the Fullerton Kiwanis club yesterday at noon in McFarland's cafe.

The speaker was introduced at the meeting by Robert Seamans, a member of the Kiwanis educational committee of which Hubert Dawson, who presided at the meeting yesterday, is chairman.

One of the special features of the program yesterday was the singing of Christmas carols by a mixed chorus from the Fullerton district junior college under the direction of William Robles, director of music at the junior college. The singing by the college group came as a surprise to Kiwanians and the carolers were unseen when the singing began. Sixteen voices were included in the chorus with Miss Lois Cottam as soprano soloist and Marcelina Arruoz playing a violin obligato in a special number.

Representatives of the local club were selected to attend the final divisional meeting of the year at the La Habra Masonic temple at 6:45 p. m. yesterday at which Lieut.-Gov. Harry G. Maxwell, of Fullerton, presided for the last time this year.

Widening Of Coast Road Is Under Way

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Dec. 17.—The work of widening the Coast highway from Long Beach to Newport Beach is under way. Workmen with a mud dredge are at work along the sloughs on the Bolsa Chico Gun club property and another force of graders is working between Huntington Beach and Newport.

INTEREST REVIVED IN BEACH AIRPORT

NEWPORT BEACH, Dec. 17.—An inquiry from Rand, McNally and company, internationally known map makers, as to the facilities for landing of aircraft here, read at the council meeting last night, has revived interest again in a plan to establish a municipal airport close to Newport bay.

Councilman Harry Williamson is one who favors such a project. He points out that sufficient land could be acquired for the purpose, and that every week officers from March field, the government flying school near Riverside, fly to the Santa Ana Country club for a golf game, flying back to Riverside the same afternoon.

They land and take off at the golf course, there being a vacant space between the playing course and Newport boulevard, about 200 feet wide by 1500 feet long.

ORANGE CHURCH PLANS PAGEANT DECEMBER 22

ORANGE, Dec. 17.—A Christmas pageant written by the Rev. Lyman J. Bayard, former pastor of the Costa Mesa Community church, will be presented at the First Methodist church, December 22.

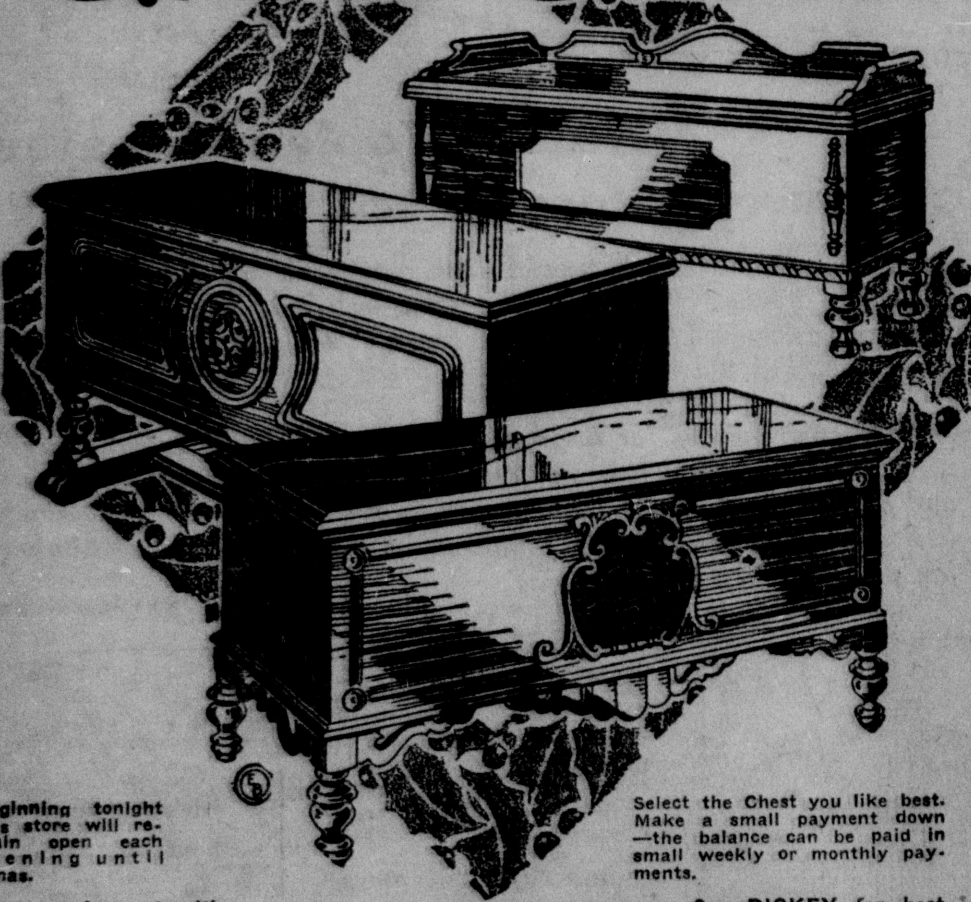

The production selected by the Orange church for presentation is "The Heavenly Host." It will be directed by Holly Lash Visel. The role of Gabriel will be taken by Frank Nuslein; Luke, Leonard, Scriven; Matthew, Cole; Joseph, Carl Warner; Mary, Mrs. Frank Goode; priest, Ralph Hull.

The four shepherds are to be Messrs. W. F. Hilyard, A. E. Walkup, W. G. Suffern and Hartman, and the three wise men are to be Messrs. Harold Gorton, L. W. Hemphill and J. L. Clayton. Harold Gorton will take the part of Simeon; Ralph Hull, Zacharias; the angel of time, Margaret Weekly; angel of peace, Mrs. James Wingett; the angel, Myrtle Nuslein; Ann, Florence Riddle, and Elizabeth, Chloe Williamson.

There is to be a cast of 30 angels in the cast and a quartet composed of Mrs. Annis Patton, Harold Gorton, L. W. Hemphill and Holly Lash Visel. Miss Faye Stinson is the assistant director of the pageant.

James Suffern is stage manager, Miss Lulu Thornburg, costume mistress, and accompanist, Miss Ola Hartman.

RICHARD CROOKS ON EVEREADY PROGRAM

Richard Crooks, an American singer, who is leading tenor in two European opera companies, will be presented as guest artist during the Eveready hour, to be broadcast through the NBC coast-to-coast system between 6 and 7 o'clock tonight.

Although still in his twenties, this young native of New Jersey is recognized both in the United States and abroad as one of the finest American-born tenors of this generation. He achieved his first fame when he was chosen by Walter Damrosch to appear as soloist with the New York Symphony orchestra in nine concerts during his first professional season. European recitals were followed

Mary Owens Will Be Presented On Old Gold Program

The Old Gold Paul Whiteman Hour again will be broadcast over the nation-wide network of the Columbia Broadcasting system, from 6 to 7 p. m., Pacific standard time, tonight, from station KHJ, Los Angeles. Mary Margaret Owens will be the guest of the King of Jazz on this occasion and will sing a number from the special arrangement of "Show Boat" medleys.

Among the new tunes which Old Gold will offer are "You're Responsible," "With You With Me," "Tanned Legs" and "Blue Eyes Got Ready for Love." The popular Paul Whiteman Rhythm Boys again will be on the program, as well as Mildred Bailey, contralto; Bing Crosby, baritone; Jack Fulton and Al Rinker.

Because they were unwilling to cut Saturday morning classes, six Lehigh students took off in an airplane from Bethlehem, Pa., at noon for Philadelphia to watch their team against Pennsylvania.

by engagements at the Hamburg and Berlin operas. He made his operatic debut at the former city in "Tosca."

This program will be released on the Pacific coast through NBC system stations KGO, Oakland; KHQ, Spokane; KOMO, Seattle; KGW, Portland, and KFI, Los Angeles.

WESTINGHOUSE TO OFFER DRAMALOGUES

Man's conquest of rushing waters and harnessing of tumultuous water power will be portrayed in drama and musical presentations when the Westinghouse Salute to the hydraulic industry is broadcast through the NBC coast-to-coast system including KFI, between 4:30 and 5 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

The program will include two dramalogues, "The Waters of Israel," with Richard Gordon, Harvey Hays, Charles Watson, Joseph Grady, John McGovern, John Wigan and Rodney Hildebrand, and "Convincing Dad," with Virginia Gardner, Arthur Allen and Allyn Joslyn.

Cesare Sodero has composed an original score for the program. The orchestra will play "The Haunted Forest" by MacDowell, "Oriental" by Cesar Cui, "Le Cygne" by Saint-Saens and the first movement from "Scheherazade" by Rimsky-Korsakov.

Pedro de Cordoba will be heard as the "Voice of the Interludes."

What is this new and astonishing Agmel?

Why has it this effect upon kidney deficiencies, high blood pressure, indigestion?

AGMEL is astonishing both in what it is and what it does. Agmel is a great health food, a valuable tonic in kidney deficiencies, high blood pressure, indigestion and glycosuria. It is an extraordinary discovery, a real gift of nature—an imported vegetable milk from Mexico. In its native country this plant sap is called "agumiel."

It comes from the famous maguay plant and there is nothing else in the world like it.

Fresh agumiel has been used for centuries in Mexico. Now this pure sap has been concentrated for export, and the name has been shortened to Agmel. Everybody can now have Agmel. This is fortunate for those men and women just entering middle life and for those of all ages who are being warned of danger by frequent arising at night, backache, high blood pressure and other symptoms brought on by modern ways of eating and living. Imported by The Agmel Corporation, New York and Mexico, D. F.

Kidneys 100% Better

"I couldn't eat, had dizzy spells, got up many times every night. Then took Agmel faithfully for a month and everything was changed. My blood pressure was 60 degrees lower, appetite returned and kidneys were 100% better."—Mrs. J. W. Shane, Los Angeles, Cal.

CONFERENCE TEAMS ARRANGE SCHEDULE

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 17.—Coaches and other Pacific Coast conference officials opened the second session of their annual meeting today with many important game schedules already completed. At yesterday's opening session, Washington booked a schedule of seven conference games, while Stanford and California booked five apiece, and U.S.C. booked three with each of the others of the "Big Four" and three with smaller conference schools. Many of the conference teams are already scheduled games with eastern contenders, and rumors that California will seek a Yale or Navy game for New Year's day, are current. El Mary's, not a conference member, has games with California and Oregon, and is seeking one with U.S.C. Stanford probably will not book with the aies. Santa Clara will be California's opening game, as usual.

TRUCK DRIVER WHO LEARNED FOOTBALL ON SANDLOTS WILL PLAY IN EAST-WEST CONTEST

By RICHARD G. BALDWIN
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 17.—Joe Fredericks is going to play football New Year's Day.

When the east and west teams clash here in annual conflict Joe will be in the backfield for the latter squad. The chances are you've never before heard of Joe. He never made a great college team—because he didn't go to college.

Joe is one griddle of the 50 or more who will cavort on the field at Kezar stadium here January 1 who learned his football on the "sandlots."

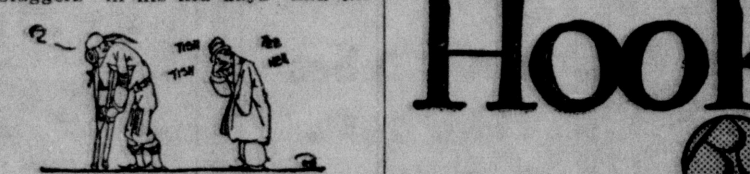

He is going to line up with some of the best players in the country—many of them All-American nominees, but he isn't worried.

Joe is the one griddle of all the stars on the famous Olympic club team of this city who has been selected to play for the west.

And there are a great many famous players on the big club team—Mayes McLane, Mort Kaer, and others known the width of the nation.

Joe learned his football down in the Mission, and if you know San Francisco you know what that means.

Instead of an inflated pigskin the ball Joe handled was an old piece of cowhide stuffed with the feathers of some dead fowl. He belonged to the National Sluggers—in his kid days—and the sluggers lived up to their name. In 1927 someone induced Joe to try for the Olympic team. He did so, protesting he could never make a "real" player.

The first time out for practice the squad lined up for a 100 yard dash. Joe won—he beat the great Kaer, one of the fastest of the country's football men.

He was brought along slowly, and it was not until this season and it was not until this season opponents.

Exceptionally fast, tricky, and a great open field runner, Joe Fredericks proceeded to show a number of Pacific Coast college men how a backfield position should be played. He played the last three minutes

PRO GRID STAR FLOORS ART IN OPENING ROUND

By FREDERICK C. OTHMAN
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
CHICAGO, Dec. 17.—Arthur Shires got up late today, fixed the sticking plaster on his face, and forlornly ripped from his bath robe a sign which read: "Arthur, the Great Shires."

It was one of those depressing mornings after the night before for the White Sox first baseman who demonstrated conclusively here last night that what he doesn't know about boxing would fill a good sized library.

George Trafion, chubby professional football player who was his opponent, hadn't learned any more about the gentle art of trading punches than Shires, but for all that, when their five-round bout was over, the referee lifted Trafion's hand high in the air.

In justice to Arthur, however, it must be put down here that had not the referee raised Trafion's hand, Trafion would not have been able to lift it himself. The five rounds of battling with Arthur, the Great, left him as winded as would be a portly, elderly woman after being chased a mile and a half by an angry bull.

Promoter Jim Mullen "buled" the affair as "the fight of the ages." Maybe it was, at that. Certainly no such ludicrous exhibition ever has been seen. And there isn't much likelihood that the fight fans of any future age will witness a similar tilt.

Some 5000 cash customers packed the White City stadium, however, to watch the inelegant Trafion trounce the granddaddy Shires and they all went home satisfied with the result.

Most of them paid their good money to see the fight, only in the hope that Shires, who succeeded in making himself thoroughly unpopular last summer by fighting assorted baseball players and hotel bell boys, would be licked.

Eastern Gridders On Way To Coast

EVANSTON, Ill., Dec. 17.—The All-Star Eastern football team, was enroute west today to play an All-Star Far Western eleven New Year's day at Berkeley, Calif.

The team went through its first practice session here yesterday under direction of Coaches Dick Hanley and Andy Kerr. Little progress was made due to poor light and a soggy field.

Sangor, Zorilla Clash At Olympic

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 17.—Joe Sangor and Santiago Zorilla, meeting for the fourth time, head the Olympic bill tonight. Each has a victory to his credit, with one no-decision clash. They are coming in at 131 pounds with Sangor the favorite to win.

DID YOU KNOW THAT—

Carnera says he did not hear the bell ending the round after which he soaked Young Stribling on the whickers. . . His stock slumped considerably after losing to Strib on a foul, as the Georgian was licking him. . . Stribling's stock went up a notch. . . The Rockne says his team would be glad to play Iowa. . . Hardy—all athletes. . . though Harding's injury is believed to have ended his gridiron career.

AND THEY OUSTED IOWA!

They have barred the University of Iowa from the Big Ten. Next week the pot will be given several days off, it is understood, in order to catch up on its custom of calling the kettle black. The reason was that Iowa had not sufficiently reformed. The practice of proselytizing and subsidization of athletes had not been entirely eliminated. The conference had expected Iowa to bar athletes who had benefited from various "slush funds" or means of subsidy which had been admitted to exist by Iowa officials. Iowa has confessed guilt, it seems, and admitted it was willing to try to clean up the situation. Some astounding revelations might result if some of the other schools in the Big Ten, which is now the Big Nine, were as frank as Iowa has been about the matter.

THEY SAT AS JUDGES

The Carnegie Foundation bulletin on athletics had a few important things to say about some of the schools that voted against Iowa's remaining in the Big Ten. No less than seven of the nine remaining were accused of subsidizing athletes. The technique of subsidization in some of these other schools was perhaps not so broad as Iowa's, according to the bulletin, but according to the book Iowa was accused of granting concessions to athletes. Michigan was written up also as holding out inducement to the matriculating blacksmiths.

Minnesota and Wisconsin were charged with employing athletes as rubbers for other athletes (with a nice shower room economy). Wisconsin, Purdue and Northwestern were accused of sending out members of their athletic staffs to recruit football and other talent. Ohio was charged with sending

Helen To Tell Wedding Plan Thursday

BERKELEY, Dec. 17.—Definite plans for the marriage of Helen Willis and Frederick Moody Jr., will be announced Thursday, Mrs. C. A. Willis, mother of the tennis champion, told the United Press today.

"It will be held in a few days but all these reports are just guess work and so is all the talk about a honeymoon yacht trip," Mrs. Willis said.

Rumors were here that Miss Willis was to be married Christmas day or sooner and that she and Moody would cruise to Mazatlan on the yacht yawl Galatea for their honeymoon.

S. A. WOMEN IN 11-1 VICTORY OVER HACIENDA

Scoring their most decisive victory of the season, the Santa Ana County club women's golf team defeated Hacienda Country club, 11 to 1, in Southern California Inter-Club league match play here yesterday.

This convincing triumph put the Santa Anas at the top of the standings in their division of the winter series.

Scores follow:
Mrs. J. K. McDonald and Mrs. J. L. Almsworth, Santa Ana, defeated Mrs. Carter and Mrs. Crook, Hacienda, 2-1 to 1-2.

Miss Margaret Way and Mrs. O. Pixley, Santa Ana, won from Mrs. Fletcher and Mrs. Rowe, Hacienda, 3 to 0.

Mrs. C. V. Doty and Mrs. R. W. Townsend, Santa Ana, defeated Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. De Land, Hacienda, 3 to 0.

Mrs. Hugh Shields and Mrs. E. B. Van Meter, Santa Ana, won from Mrs. Ellis and Mrs. Pratt, Hacienda, 2-1 to 1-2.

ROSE BOWL SELLOUT FOR TROY AND PITT

PASADENA, Dec. 17.—The Rose Bowl has been completely sold out for the U.S.C.-Pittsburgh New Year's football game. The sellout was accomplished in eight days, breaking all previous records. The Bowl holds 70,000 persons.

TROJANS BEAT CLUBMEN

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 17.—Los Angeles Athletic club cagers went down to defeat before the U.S.C. basketball tonight, 35 to 31, last night. Frank Smith, Trojan center, scored 17 points and started his team on a rally in the second half that enabled it to pile up a winning lead.

The Patonites tackle Garden Grove in the first round Thursday and will engage the winner of the Chino-Brea-Olinda game if they down the Chillepeppers.

DONS WIN BUT SANTS BEATEN IN BASKETBALL

Playing the first game of a home series with the Concordia Athletic club, the Santa Ana junior college basketball team returned from Orange victorious last night with a 36 to 31 verdict over its neighbors.

The Dons, with a large turnout for the team, looked capable of getting somewhere in the jaycee conference this year. The starting lineup held the Concordians down under cover most of the way until Leichtfuss got "hot" in the last half and rang up 16 points in rapid succession, although the Padres, with Brown, Corral, Lindsey and Appleby leading the scoring, kept ahead of the Orange players throughout.

The score at the end of the first quarter was 12 to 2 for Santa Ana and then Coach Bill Foote's men kept going and rang up 12 more points in the second stanza while the Concordia players raised their total to 10 points. Both teams showed plenty of power in the third and fourth periods, with the score at 34 to 21 at the end of the third quarter.

Lindsey was the outstanding Don player during this time, although Brown and Corral were not far behind. The Dons will play the Concordia club again next Monday in Santa Ana, take on the Olympic club December 27 and then swing into their conference schedule with Los Angeles junior college in Santa Ana January 4.

The lineup:
Santa Ana (36).....(31) Concordia
Santos (2).....F.....(4) H. Fitcher
Appleby (4).....F.....(16) Leichtfuss
Twist (2).....G.....(2) C. Bandick
Swetnam (4).....G.....(2) C. Bandick
Valentine.....G.....A. Dierker

Substitutions:
Santa Ana—Corral (6), Schuchardt (2), Beatty (2), Brown (6), Lindsey (6), Oliverley (2), Tanaka, Adams, Dutton, Garlock, Lammman, Concordia—Fargoe (5), H. Bandick (3).

HIGH SCHOOL TEAM NOSED OUT BY HAWLEYS

With both sides playing raggedly, the Santa Ana high school and the Hawley sporting goods quintets "scrimmaged" in Andrews gymnasium last night. Although no official score was kept the Hawleys emerged with a slight advantage over the preps.

Coach Clyde Patton used a large number of recruits in the tussle and up until the fourth quarter his team was leading the Sportsmen. Blanchard Beatty and Frank Labrucherie then led their teammates in a scoring rally and the Hawleys forged into the lead and finally won by approximately 30 to 25 points.

Drilling for their matches in the Huntington Beach invitational tournament Thursday and Friday, the Saints did not show as well on defense as expected although the scoring efforts of the Santa Anans were not bad.

Leo Gaspar and Asa Herren, forwards, were the chief offensive players while Jimmy Hall, dynamic little guard, was outstanding on defense. McChesney and Long also looked good in this department. Lindsey and Vance both played at center with varying success.

The Patonites tackle Garden Grove in the first round Thursday and will engage the winner of the Chino-Brea-Olinda game if they down the Chillepeppers.

The lineup:
High School.....F.....Friebe
Gasper.....F.....Friebe

M'Larnin To Show Next In February

NEW YORK, Dec. 17.—Jimmy McLarnin, Pacific Coast welterweight, will make his next appearance at Madison Square Garden early in February, it was decided after a conference between "Pop" Foster, McLarnin's manager, and Matchmaker Tom McCardle.

McCardle submitted the names of "Gorilla" Jones, Tommy Freeman, Vince Dundee, Jack Thompson and "Baby Joe" Gans as opponents for McLarnin, but Foster will reserve his decision for several weeks.

There you have the setting of the story. Nine universities voted on whether or not Iowa is clean enough athletically to remain in the great midwestern conference. Iowa was barred.

Iowa is out, and all's well in the Big Ten! (Applause.)

Sonnenberg Is Winner Over Ed Lewis

TULSA, Okla., Dec. 17.—Two straight falls in one hour of wrestling gave Gus Sonnenberg a victory over Ed ("Strangler") Lewis here last night. The first fall came in 50 minutes, the second 10 minutes later. Sonnenberg carried the fight from the start and was never in danger of losing his heavyweight title.

FAVOR FRASER OVER BITTO IN SCRAP TONIGHT

You can't laugh off a record like Wally Fraser's and so the big Hawthorne battler was heavily favored today to win from Joe Bitto in tonight's light heavyweight battle at the Orange County Athletic club.

This will be Fraser's thirteenth start at the southside arena where he has never so much as been held to a draw. His record book shows victories here over "Red" Blankmeyer, Louis Wilson, Douglas Deighton Simpson, George Claire, "Biff" Hoffman, K. O. Brown, Ted Sluder, Jack Magrini, Big Hutch, Frankie Muskie, Frank Williams and Johnny Barry.

After beating Williams and Barry in successive weeks, Fraser graduated to the "big time." He has had half a dozen matches at Hollywood and the Olympic, winning every time. In fact, Big Hutch is the only man over to beat Fraser and the Hawthorne brawler later reversed that blot, smashing Hutch's jaw in the second round of a rematch here.

Bitto comes here with decisions over Charley Long, Carmen Tuzzolino, Homer Sheridan and other outstanding middleweights. He will scale from six to ten pounds less than Fraser.

Three semi-windups will lend a holiday flavor to the 36-round program tonight.

Zenaydo Chavez, Santa Ana welter, meets Lyle DesVoignes, Ocean Park muck-wrester who fought a slashing draw with Tommy Huffman at Wilmington two weeks ago. Pat Cunningham, a Los Angeles knockout sensation, goes against Montor Leonard, San Diego, Tony Moreno, Placentia featherweight, will face Luis Echeveste of Santa Ana.

ANGELES LAND CATCHER
LOS ANGELES, Dec. 17.—Dallas Warren, young catcher, has been sent to the Chicago Cubs by the Los Angeles Coast league club in exchange for John Schulte, a backstop, it was announced here. Schulte took part in 31 games with the Cubs and batted .261 last season.

ARMY FOOTBALL SQUAD OFF FOR STANFORD GAME

BY DIXON STEWART
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

NEW YORK, Dec. 17.—The first invasion of Pacific Coast territory by a United States military academy football team will get underway tomorrow when a squad of 110 Army football players leaves West Point for Palo Alto, Calif., to play Stanford university December 23.

Despite the condemnation by the Carnegie foundation, of the fact that college football players were assigned individual berths, Army officials have secured the most palatial and best fitted train ever assembled for a football trip to transport the squad to the coast.

The Army was one of the few institutions which the Carnegie foundation's now famous "Bulletin No. 23" exonerated as guilty of "recruiting," "subsidizing" and "overemphasizing" football.

What the Carnegie reaction will be to the present trip is unknown and apparently is regarded as unimportant by Army football leaders.

At any rate Head Coach "Biff" Jones is taking all Army football players to California—the varsity players, scrubs and even the plebe squad. It is explained that only the varsity players will be used against Stanford but that the scrubs and plebes will be used in practice sessions.

Stops will be made at Galen, Ill., Syracuse, Kas., and Needles, Calif., where one hour practice sessions are scheduled. The return tour will include visits to Hollywood's movie studios and a day's stop at Grand canyon. The party will return to West Point January 5.

Hawkeyes May Get Back In Conference

IOWA CITY, Dec. 17.—An announcement that the eligibility committee of the Western conference will meet here January 9 had set afloat rumors today that Iowa university might be reinstated in the good graces of the Big Ten before the May meeting of the board.

A special investigation into the case of 14 athletes declared ineligible by the Iowa board for participation in the "baiting fund" will be made by the committee which includes Thomas French, Ohio State; O. F. Long, Northwestern and Ralph Aigler, Michigan.

GREENLEAF IN WORLD RECORD TOURNEY 'RUN'

DETROIT, Dec. 17.—Rising to supreme heights, Ralph Greenleaf, once known as "the boy wonder," last night defeated the world's champion, Frank Taberski, 125 to 0, in two innings, in the world's pocket billiard championship tournament here and set two new world records.

Taberski won the break, giving Greenleaf the first shot. In attempting to play safe, Ralph scratched.

With the advantage of placing the cue ball in whatever position he wished at the lower end of the table, Taberski lined it up for a straight shot and missed.

Greenleaf ran 125 balls to win the most spectacular game ever played.

Greenleaf's performance established two new world records, that for high run, and shortest game of

COLLEGE TALL MEN TO MEET FACULTY FIVE

Faculty talent for the first annual faculty and Longfellow's basketball game at Santa Ana Junior college is turning up so fast that the pedagogical squad now numbers around 20 hoisters and the Society of Longfellow's is thinking more seriously of the big game tomorrow afternoon at 3:30.

The six-footers, with seven or eight members on the varsity, thought the game was as much as won but the faculty, rounded up by Coach Bill Foote, now look quite formidable and frequent substitutions are calculated to make the game close.

Faculty members who have already signified their intention to enter the games are: "Tex" Oliver, Bill Foote, Bill Cook, Clyde Cook, Walter Scott, H. O. Scott, G. M. Wooley, H. O. Russell, T. E. Williams, Grant B. Myer, Ray Adkins, D. K. Hammond, W. M. Clayton, Charles Tibbets, T. H. Glenn, Lester Archer, E. C. Phillips, S. Carrier, E. B. Holmes, L. L. Beeman, Leon McFullen and Lynn Crawford.

A record crowd is anticipated by the Longfellow's. A nominal admission fee will be charged to pay for the club picture in the college yearbook. Players signed up for the Longfellow's are Bob Squier, Alvin Swindler, Eric Twist, Ed Adams, Vernon Valentine, Kench Tanaka, Bob Straud, George Padlock, Max Appleby, Nelson Conway and Bill Schoelling.

COAST ASSOCIATION ELECTS ON TUESDAY

SEAL BEACH, Dec. 17.—The Orange County Coast association will meet in the city auditorium Tuesday night. There will be nomination and election of officers. A dinner will be served by the women of the Catholic church. Delegates from all the cities of the coast will attend.

EL TORO

EL TORO, Dec. 17.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Swartz was the setting for a most delightful reunion Sunday morning, honoring the 35th birthday of Mrs. Ann Swartz of Tustin. Dinner was served at noon at one large table, centered with a great bowl of carnations. The occasion was exceptionally happy as the host, Harvey W. Swartz, is now able to be about some after a severe illness of typhoid fever. All of the honoree's children were present and also her two great-grandsons. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Wade Davis of Pasadena; Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Swartz and son, Harvey; Mr. and Mrs. George Prather and son Charles; Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Swartz and daughters, Charlene, Ida, Stella, Grace Ellen and Mrs. George Stevens; George Stevens, T. H. Roberts, Mrs. Bertha Miller of Chicago, an old friend of the honor guest, and Jack Known-Hoven of Pasadena.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Prothero were hosts on a recent evening at a bridge party. Poinsettias and coteaster were used to give the home a Christmas atmosphere. Scores of husbands and wives were added for the prize awards with Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Bennett receiving first. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Marsile, second, and Mr. and Mrs. Willis Mitchell, low. A two-course supper was served after the games to Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. George Osterman, Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Osterman of El Toro; Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Gulick of Capistrano; Mr. and Mrs. Willis Mitchell of Irvine, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Marsile of Tustin who were special guests for the evening.

The El Toro Woman's club will meet at the El Toro hall Friday afternoon, December 20, at 1:30 o'clock to prepare for the Christmas party which will be held that evening. This is a special meeting. Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Waterman and baby, have arrived to spend the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Waterman. Their home is in Coleville, Mono county, California.

Mr. and Mrs. Juan Ustariz are the parents of a son, born last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fox spent Sunday with relatives in Laguna Beach.

Mrs. George Osterman attended a luncheon at Santa Fe Springs, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Scott have as house guests their father, Amos Scott of Grant's Pass, Ore., and Abram Delong, who has been in Iowa for several months. Miss Mary Pierce, who attends school in Glendora, is spending the Christmas vacation with her father, F. O. Pierce.

COSTA MESA

COST MESA, Dec. 17.—Mrs. Lydia Conwell, acting chairman of the World Service branch of the Community church activities, presided over a meeting of the heads of all departments and secretaries last night, at which time a program was outlined for the advancement of the World Service activities at the beginning of 1930. Some 50 workers were present. One of the girls' classes served punch and cake to the aggregation before adjournment.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Stutzman and sons, of Wenatchee, Wn., have arrived in Costa Mesa to spend a part of the winter with Mrs. Stutzman's father, W. I. Chamberlain, in his Cecil place home.

E. R. Stumbo, former manager of the Siedel meat market here, has gone to Laguna Beach to assume the management of a market there for the same concern. Emmet Allen, of Santa Ana, will take charge of the market here.

The Rev. and Mrs. D. H. Hurtman, leaders of the Four Square work in Costa Mesa, will have with them in their home on Hamilton street for several days, Mrs. Hartman's mother, Mrs. Betty Edwards, and her brother, Fred Edwards and wife and baby.

While on their way to San Diego to visit with Mrs. Golden's mother, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Golden, formerly of Costa Mesa, and still owning a residence property here, stopped over for a day with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lowmes of Placencia at Eighteenth street.

OIL COMPANY ADDS BOILERS IN H. B. FIELD

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Dec. 17.—The Richfield Oil company has added four boilers to its boiler plant on the Arnold lease at Huntington and Garfield, giving a total of eight 70-horsepower boilers, one of the largest single group of boilers ever placed in this field, even in its palmiest days. The Richfield has started erecting two derricks to be drilled from this boiler plant, one on the Heaton property and one on the old Arnold lease.

The Richfield is also considering an offer of the old Rio Bravo or Old Crude lease across Garfield street from the boiler plant. This lease contains 12 acres. The Richfield already has the Heaton lease of five acres and the Arnold tract of 10 acres. Nearby is the seven-acre Patrick community lease, containing the tracts owned by Joe Blas, Jean Lacabanne and W. H. Morrison. Royalty is owned by C. W. Patrick, E. G. Conrad and Humphries and Bolton of Santa Ana. Also the Richfield holds part of the linoleum plant lease across Huntington avenue from the Heaton lease and several other small tracts in that vicinity. The placing of such a large boiler plant may mean that the Richfield is going to drill several wells in that vicinity. At any rate two new wells are already under way.

A second gas trap was placed at the Richfield-Paige well Sunday. The well was connected directly with the pipe line. One gas trap takes care of the oil when it runs to the pipe line. The well is producing practically clean oil and production of gas and oil are both gaining steadily. The well is estimated to be doing about 200 barrels a day.

Kiesau and associates are getting ready to pump their well offsetting the Richfield-Paige at Garfield and Westminster. The Kiesau well is 150 feet deeper than the Paige. Bottom of the hole at the Kiesau is almost 4900 feet. If Kiesau's well is a better producer than the Paige, Richfield will deepen. Indications are said to point to a good well with considerable gas. Reuben Kiesau and his father are the royalty owners under the Kiesau well as well as part owners of the well, and are also royalty owners in the Richfield-Paige well. Other royalty owners are C. Ray Miller and C. W. Patrick of this city.

The Richfield has obtained a six months extension on the Dobbins lease at the corner of Main and Garfield and will not have to get on that location this month as was anticipated. It is not likely now that the Dobbins lease will be drilled until after the two Richfield wells now started on Huntington avenue near Garfield are completed, as the Richfield would have to bring in a new drilling crew. The crew from the Paige lease is rigging up over at the new derrick at the corner of Garfield and Huntington. One new crew will have to be organized or transferred from another field here to work on the Heaton lease.

Hold Dedication Of Garden Grove School Building

GARDEN GROVE, Dec. 17.—An informal dedication of the new science building of the Garden Grove union high school was held Friday evening.

Dinner was served at 6:30 o'clock in the high school cafeteria. Covers were placed for 125 persons. The dinner was served under the auspices of the P.-T. A. Fifty dollars was cleared, which will be added to the scholarship fund to assist worthy students in continuing their school work.

Following dinner the members were taken on a tour of the new building, which cost approximately $32,000, the balance of the $35,000 bond issue being used in supplying furnishings and necessary equipment.

J. A. Knapp, president of the high school P.-T. A., presided over the meeting.

L. L. Dolg, principal, gave a talk on the new structure. Several numbers were given by the boys' glee club under the direction of Miss Macintosh, this being the Glee club's first public appearance.

Miss Hoffman, art teacher, told of the art work taught in the high school.

Hundreds Visit New Apartments

FULLERTON, Dec. 17.—Hundreds of interested persons visited the new Dewella apartments Sunday afternoon, when entire unit was open for inspection for several hours, according to Mrs. Herman H. Bruns, owner. The apartments are located at 232 East Wilshire avenue.

The furnishings were furnished by the Clausen Furniture company, Santa Ana.

Construction work on the apartment structure was started some three months ago. The cost was estimated at $35,000.

CLASS HAS DINNER

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Dec. 17.—The True Blue Boys, Miss Frances Van Horn's Sunday school class of the Methodist church, gave a dinner at the church Saturday night for the benefit of the Spanish-American Institute for Boys at Gardena. The boys netted $10 from their dinner, which will be their Christmas contribution to the school. The True Blue class is composed of boys under 12 years of age.

ANAHEIM GRADE STUDENTS GIVE YULE PROGRAM

ANAHEIM, Dec. 17.—The Central grammar school presented its Christmas program yesterday in the front lawn of the school. There were no sleigh bells, snow, or fur coats accompanying the open air presentation, but the boys and girls told their stories and sang their songs with the real spirit of Yuletide.

The flag salute and pledge of allegiance by the whole school opened the program. The school sextet, including Helen Tobin, Jewel Webb, Mary Lou Pearson, Roy Gonzales, Don Johnson and Cecelia Pack, presented "The Birthday of a King." Mamie Ruth Paris played a piano solo. The first grade class gave a Christmas exercise. Mary Shaw offered two piano numbers, "Blue Bell March" and "Waltz in F Major."

Recitations included "The Northwind that Blows," Beverly Milson; "Christmas," Betty Jane Ward; "How the Elephant Got His Trunk," Jane Pike; "Santa's Whiskers," Billy Craddock, and "Jest 'Fore Christmas," Richard Kendrick. A chorus of girls closed the program by singing the ever loved "Silent Night."

Noted Author Not To Visit County

LA HABRA, Dec. 17.—In view of the fact that it was difficult to secure a suitable house in La Habra, J. Breckenridge Ellis, noted Missouri author, and mother will not return to La Habra this winter for their annual visit. Instead the author and his mother have accepted an invitation to spend the winter with relatives in Granite, Okla.

ATTEND MEET

ORANGE, Dec. 17.—Ross Taylor, teacher of oral English in the Orange union high school, is planning to attend the meeting of oral English and speech art teachers of Southern California Tuesday, at the Elite cafe, Los Angeles.

Simple Pleasant Way To Lose Fat

How would you like to lose 15 pounds of fat in a month and at the same time increase your energy and improve your health?

How would you like to lose a load of unhealthy fat that you don't need and don't want and at the same time feel better than you have for years?

How would you like to lose your double chin and your too prominent abdomen and at the same time make your skin so clean and clear that it will compel admiration?

How would you like to get your weight down to normal and at the same time develop that urge for activity that makes work a pleasure and also gain in ambition and keenness of mind?

Get on the scales to-day and see how much you weigh—then get an 85 cent bottle of Kruschen Salts which will last you for 4 weeks. Take one half teaspoonful in a glass of hot water every morning and when you have finished the contents of this first bottle weigh yourself again.

Now you can laugh at the people who pay hundreds of dollars to lose a few pounds of fat—now you will know the pleasant way to lose unsightly fat and you'll also know that the 4 vitalizing salts of Kruschen (Salts that your blood, nerves and glands must have to function properly)—have presented you with glorious health.

After that you'll want to walk around and say to your friends—"One 85 cent bottle of Kruschen Salts is worth one hundred dollars of any fat person's money." Leading druggists America over sell Kruschen Salts—you can always get it at Mateer's Drug Store. —Adv.

Register Prize Campaign Closes At 9 P. M., Tomorrow

SEALED BALLOT BOX AWAITING CLOSING VOTES

Tomorrow is the last day in the Register's $10,000 prize campaign. Promptly at 9 o'clock tomorrow night will terminate the mammoth prize event which for weeks has stirred the ambitions of men and women in Santa Ana and all over the surrounding territory. Today these contestants stand upon the threshold of their reward and the few remaining hours of subscription-getting will determine the winners of the cash awards.

When the hands of the clock point to 9 o'clock, tomorrow night, the doors of the campaign department will be closed and locked, marking the end of the campaign, and only those who are inside at the time will be waited upon. No one can turn in subscriptions after the closing hour.

Will Be Big Day While city contestants expect to make this their biggest day and preparations have been made to care for the final influx of subscriptions during the later hours of the day, out-of-town contestants also expect to be as busy as they can be until the close.

For those who reside at a distance and are unable to visit the campaign headquarters personally, the local post offices in towns throughout the territory will become the custodians of final efforts. Subscriptions may be mailed late tomorrow, just so the letters show a postmark not later than 9 p. m., Dec. 18, 1929. And all subscriptions that are mailed must reach the campaign department of The Register by Thursday noon, December 19, in order to be eligible.

Ballot Box Sealed The ballot box has been sealed and will not be opened by the auditors until after the close of the campaign. Contestants calling in person at the campaign office will deposit their subscriptions in the sealed ballot box.

The official vote count, which begins after the close of the campaign.

Speedy Relief for Sore Throat

This Doctor's Prescription Requires No Gargling

No longer is it necessary to gargle and choke with nasty tasting medicines to relieve sore throat. Now you can get almost instant relief with one swallow of a doctor's prescription. This prescription was refilled so often and became so popular that the druggist who originally filled it decided to put it up under the name Thoxine and make it available to everyone.

The remarkable thing about Thoxine is that it relieves almost instantly, yet contains nothing harmful. It is pleasant tasting, and safe for the whole family, and is guaranteed to relieve sore throats or coughs in 15 minutes or money back. Just ask for Thoxine, 35c, 60c and $1.00. Sold by McCoy's Drug Stores, and all other good drug stores.—Adv.

BROCK AND HIS ASSISTANT OFF TO CONVENTION

County Agricultural Commissioner A. A. Brock and Deputy Commissioner Ethelbert Johnson are on their way to Sacramento today to attend the annual fall meeting of all county agricultural commissioners in the state beginning tomorrow. The meeting is held in conjunction with the 32nd fruit growers and farmers' convention, which will be in session in the capital for three days.

The session Wednesday will be called to order by A. E. Morrison, president of the State Association of County Agricultural Commissioners, and provides a varied program on many matters of vital interest. Among the subjects to be discussed are the following: "The Weed Situation in California," Walter S. Ball, assistant botanist, state department of agriculture; "The Present Standardization Program," S. S. Rogers, chief of the bureau of fruit and vegetable standards; "Law Enforcement Problems," Honorable Jesse Hession, deputy attorney general, state of California; "The Value of the Mediterranean Fruit Fly Survey in California," D. B. Mackie, senior entomologist, state department of agriculture.

Delegates from Orange county to the fruit growers and farmers' meeting include A. J. McFadden, from the Orange County Fruit exchange, and Jack Prizen, from the Northern Orange County Fruit exchange. This meeting will convene at 9:30 Thursday morning under the direction of R. A. Condee, president of the California state board of agriculture. The first item on the program is the report of G. H. Hecke, state director of agriculture. A discussion of the 1930 program will ensue, with R. W. Blackburn, vice president of the California Farm Bureau federation; George Sehlmeier, master of the California Grange, and R. V. Gerrod, state president of the Farmers' Educational and Co-operative Union of America, leading. Some of the other subjects and speakers for the Thursday session are "Proposed Improvements in the Livestock Quarantine," George E. Platt, chairman of the state foot and mouth disease commission, and "The Progressive Economical Trend of Agriculture," Dr. G. B. Hutchinson, college of agriculture, Berkeley.

The big occasion of the convention will be the banquet, Thursday night, when Gov. C. C. Young will be the guest of honor and George E. Farrand, counsel for the Federal Farm Bureau, Washington, will deliver the address.

At the Friday session the program will include the following subjects: "The Study of the Distribution of California Fruits and Vegetables," Dr. Alonzo E. Taylor, director food research institute, Stanford university; "The Federal Farm Board and Its Purposes," C. C. Teague, member Federal Farm Bureau, Washington; "The Services of the U. S. Bureau of Agricultural Economics," Nils A. Olsen, chief of the bureau of agricultural economics, U. S. department of agriculture, Washington; "What is the Tariff Outlook for Agriculture," Prof. R. L. Adams, college of agriculture, Berkeley.

GIRL SCOUTS PLAN GIFTS FOR NEEDY

ORANGE, Dec. 17.—Girl Scouts of Orange will provide Christmas gifts for about 33 children of needy families. Names are supplied to the Scouts by Mrs. Lillian Weidemann, who is in charge of the welfare store, the Scouts receiving only the first names of the children and their ages. Last year 27 children received gifts from the Scouts.

FR. O'SULLIVAN IS SPEAKER AT B.P.W. MEETING

"There is no more beautiful, romantic or pleasant history than that of California in the early mission days," asserted Father St. John O'Sullivan, of the San Juan Capistrano mission, in his address to the Business and Professional Women's club, yesterday noon in St. Ann's Inn.

"No state in the union has such a marvelous background. Texas, New Mexico and Arizona are the only states having a history similar to ours, but theirs cannot compare with that made by the Franciscan fathers of California's pioneer days. The great human effort expended here, when men gave up their civilization and wealth to come to this barren wilderness, is most edifying. The Indians of our state had no learning, no arts, no civilization and planted no grain as did the peoples of other states. I commend highly your interest in the builders and mission history of this country."

Father O'Sullivan, who has served the people at the San Juan mission for the last 20 years, recommended, however, that for accurate information regarding California landmarks and missions, the women read a book written on the subject by Mrs. A. S. C. Forbes. His address evolved itself into an interesting narrative concerning the lives of the people with whom he has had such close contact and their customs and traditions.

Preceding the address, Mrs. W. H. Haddon, who was introduced by Mrs. Minnie Mayhill, president, announced the production of the three-act comedy, "Half-a-Life," tonight in the Ebell auditorium, under the auspices of the finance committee of the club. The play is a comic Jewish skit and is presented here by professionals with Rosa Rosanova, who portrayed the mother in "Able's Irish Rose," appearing again in the mother role. Tickets are on sale in the Santa Ana Book store and also may be obtained at the door tonight.

C. C. Blood announced that Santa Ana day at the San Gabriel Mission playhouse will be staged at the opening matinee of John Steven McGroarty's famous Mission Play, on New Year's day. R. D. MacLean will take the lead as Fray Junipero Serra. The play will commence at 2:15 p. m.

D. C. Clantoni, director of the Santa Ana Symphony orchestra, introduced Clyde Downing, who urged the B. P. W. members to act as sponsors of the Symphony orchestra in the anticipated drive for members. Following his brief talk, in which he declared the musical organization to be a credit to this county, a discussion relating to the sponsorship program was conducted.

XMAS CONCERT TO BE GIVEN BY BAND TONIGHT

Under direction of D. C. Clantoni, the Santa Ana Municipal band will present its annual Christmas concert in the Santa Ana high school auditorium tonight, starting at 8:15. The band will be assisted by the Treble Clef club, women's chorus of 30 members, directed by Margherita Marsden.

The program will be offered free to the public and will be composed of the following brilliant numbers, many of them of typically holiday nature:

1. Marcia, "Orientale" (new) (Orlando).
  2. Overture, "Il Furioso" (Clantoni).
  3. Reverie, "The Chimes" (Clantoni).
  4. Vocal, (a) "Jesu Bambino" (The Infant Jesus) (Pietro Yon); (b) "O Holy Night" (Adolphe Adam)—the Treble Clef club, Margherita Marsden, director. Miss Allien Lair at the piano.
  5. Potpourri, "The Christmas Tree" (Tobani).
  6. Characteristic, "The Village Blacksmith" (Chas. de Carmont).
  7. Vocal, (a) "O Come All Ye Faithful" (arr. H. Seymour); (b) "The Birthday of a King" (W. H. Neidlinger)—The Treble Clef club.
  8. Grand selection, "The Huguenots" (new) (G. Meyerbeer).
  9. Waltz, "Tales from Vienna Woods" (new) (J. Strauss).
  - 10.—Symphonic march "The Boulder Dam" (Clantoni).
- This will mark the first of a series of concert programs to be presented by the band during the winter months.

Approach of Christmas Is Celebrated by
P. E. O. Chapter

The coming of the Christmas holidays was celebrated in fitting fashion last night by members of Chapter A.B.P. E. O., and their husbands when they were entertained at a delightfully appointed buffet supper at the C. S. Crookshank home on Lemon Heights.

The supper was served at the large dining room table which was centered with a bowl of beautiful red roses while tall tapers in silver holders were placed at either end. Mrs. J. K. Hermon and Mrs. H. T. Dunning presided. Smaller tables were arranged about the large room for the supper and the greens and reds of the yule tide were used in various appointments. Hostesses for the occasion included Mrs. Crookshank, Mrs. Dunning, Mrs. Hermon, Mrs. Curtis Jordan of Long Beach and Miss Lida Crookshank of this city.

Mrs. W. H. Spurgeon and Mrs. Grace Zaiser were in charge of the program which was presented during the evening.

Clever Comedy
A group of high school students, Mary Hewitt, Howard Hales, and Ted Newcomb, presented a clever little comedy, "Hot Waffles," under the direction of Ernest Crozier Phillips.

Mrs. Clair Hanson's lovely soprano voice was heard in Puccini's "La Boheme, Villanelle" by Eva Dell Acqua, and "The Star" by James Rogers, Mrs. Harry Hansen, her sister-in-law, accompanied her at the piano.

Especially well received were the trio numbers offered by Harry Hansen, Clair Hansen, and Lewis Hansen with Mrs. Harry Hansen at the piano. They gave the trio from "Attila" and "Pale in the Amber West."

A Swedish play, "Lighting of the Christmas Tree," was presented under the direction of Gladys Simpson Shafer, the cast including members of the Community Players organization. Those taking part in it were Harry Brackett, Frank Lansdowne, Mildred Snyder, Sandy Griffin, Mabel Pruitt, Charlotte Quigley and Leola Schroeder.

The interesting program was concluded with a short skit, "The Gathering of the Nuts," by Mrs. Spurgeon.

A final note of merriment was added when the gifts upon the Christmas tree were distributed among the guests.

Here's Guest List

Those enjoying the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. Claire Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Rowland, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Rowland, Mr. and Mrs. Mark E. Lacy, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Barr, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Strock, Mrs. Grace Zaiser, Don Zaiser, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Egge, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Emison, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Summers, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Switzer, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Sycamore Rebekahs Elect Officers

As the result of the election held at the latest meeting of the Sycamore Rebekah lodge, No. 140, at Odd Fellows hall, Mrs. Maude Wiley will serve as noble grand for the ensuing year. Ruth Zabel was elected vice grand. Bessie Stovall, recording secretary; Hazel Ryan, financial secretary, and Jessie Overton, treasurer.

The installation will take place at the first Rebekah meeting in January.

Plans were completed for the annual Christmas party to be held at Odd Fellows temple on Christmas eve.

ACTRESS TO PLAY HERE

Rosa Rosanova, well-known actress, is to be in Santa Ana tonight when she will play a leading role in "Half-A-Life" to be presented under the auspices of the Ebell society at the clubhouse, 8 o'clock.

S. A. Community Players
Announce Program
For Thursday

An unusually interesting program has been planned for Thursday night's Christmas party of the Santa Ana Community Players to be held in the barn, according to Gladys Simpson Shafer, barn chairman.

The program will be opened with a clever little Swedish play, "The Lighting of the Christmas Tree," by Selma Lagerlof. The parts are taken by Harry Brackett who portrays Rustier, a flute player; Frank Lansdowne, Liljekrona, a violinist; Mildred Snyder, Olga, his wife; Leola Schroeder, Helga, his daughter; Charlotte Quigley, Signe, his daughter; Mabel Pruitt, Halls, the cook; and Sanborn Griffin, Torstein, the man-servant.

It will be followed by a unique sketch, "He Said and She Said," by Alice Gerstenberg, the cast for which includes Julia Hyde, Diana Chesbrough, a society girl; Margaret Gaebe, Enid Hadleman, her friend; Sanborn Griffin, Felix Hadleman, her husband; Elaine Williams, Mrs. Cyrus Packard, their friend.

Several musical numbers will be presented by Mrs. Harry Smith, soprano; Edward Burns, cellist, and Allen Lafr, pianist. In planning refreshments for the affair, Mrs. Frank Andrews has been assisted by Miss Jeanie Wilde and Mrs. Henry Williams. The barn will be decorated for the occasion by Mrs. Charles Riggs, Mrs. Robert Shafer, Arthur Collins and Mrs. Joseph Snyder.

Mrs. Ann Swartz is honored on her birthday. Among the happiest of pre-holiday affairs was the celebration of the birthday anniversary of Miss Irene Heim, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Heim of 809 Bush street, at a surprise dinner party given in her honor last night. The parents of Miss Heim acted as hosts to the young people during the evening.

Many colorful flowers were used with bright red berries and poinsettias to carry out the Christmas motif. Glowing tapers added a cheery note to the setting.

Lovely gifts were presented the honoree who opened them preceding the card games which were enjoyed during the evening. Guests were Miss Irene Heim, Miss Bernadine Ashen, of Santa Ana, Miss Opal Jenkins of Fullerton, Walter Markell, Ed Daley and Russell Daley of Santa Ana.

Those in the group included Mrs. Ann Swartz, Mr. and Mrs. Wade Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Swartz, Mr. and Mrs. George Stevens, Charles Prather, Harvey Swartz, Miss Charlene Swartz, Miss Stella Swartz, Miss Ida Marie Swartz, Miss Grace Ellen Swartz and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey W. Swartz.

Mrs. Leo Borchard Is Hostess at Pretty Bridge Dinner

Gay holly berries, cotoneaster in graceful sprays and gorgeous poinsettias were combined in effective manner last night as the centerpiece for the dinner table at the Leo Borchard home, 1617 East Fourth street, when Mrs. Borchard entertained in honor of her husband and Dr. Harry Zaiser.

The birthday anniversaries of the two fall on the same date and they are the same age.

Other appointments at the dinner table were in lovely gold tones with clever little place cards serving later in the evening as bridge talies.

When the scores for the card games were added it was learned that Dr. and Mrs. Harry Zaiser were high with Dr. and Mrs. Adam Zaiser second and Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Schmidt low. They were presented with attractive gifts.

Those enjoying the affair with Mr. and Mrs. Borchard and Dr. and Mrs. Zaiser were Mr. and Mrs. Antone Borchard, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Schmidt, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Borchard and Dr. and Mrs. Adam Zaiser.

Annual Yule Party Is Merry Event

The annual Christmas party of chapter D.L.P.E.O., was a merry affair of yesterday, taking place at the charming home of Mrs. W. H. Harrison, 1406 Bush street, with Mrs. Harrison, Miss Lulu Minter and Mrs. John Tessman presiding as hostesses.

A delightfully appointed luncheon was followed by an interesting program which included a Christmas story by Mrs. John Tessman, a reading by Mrs. C. C. Fuller and the singing of carols by the entire group.

Mrs. Harry Bowman Is Charming Hostess

Mrs. Harry Bowman of 1218 South Broadway was hostess yesterday afternoon at a charmingly appointed Christmas luncheon given for members of Chapter G.J.P.E.O., which was marked by its clever decorations in the traditional reds and greens.

Following a unique program in which every member took part, there was a gift exchange.

The chapter will meet January 6 with Mrs. C. F. Klatt.

The MIXING BOWL by ANN MEREDITH

Mineral Oil in the Diet

What is Mineral Oil, and why was it used in the 21-day diet, published some time ago in the Mixing Bowl?

Mineral oil is an inert lubricant taken from crude petroleum. It is tasteless, colorless, has no food value, and is never assimilated by the body. It is prescribed for the use of those who suffer from chronic constipation, usually in combination with agar-agar, a dried seaweed. The agar-agar is also a non-assimilable, used to provide bulk to distend atrophied, weakened intestinal walls, while the mineral oil, or Petrolatum, provides the lubricant to move along the contents of the intestines.

It was found that mineral oil made both mayonnaise and French dressing that was acceptable when the proper seasonings were added. Its use in a reducing diet adds to the range and palatability of food without raising the calorie total, and the gentle beneficial effort of the oil on the intestinal system helps to correct the constipation to which four-fifths of us are miserable heirs. It may be purchased at any drug store.

TODAY'S RECIPE

Mack Mayonnaise
4 level tablespoons cornstarch.
1 cup boiling water
1 egg, slightly beaten
1 cup salad oil
1/4 cup vinegar or similar amount of lemon juice
1 teaspoon French mustard
1/2 teaspoon sugar
Salt and white pepper to taste.

One feature of this mayonnaise which will commend itself to you is that the quantities in the recipe make twice the amount made by the ordinary recipe.

While the cup of water is coming to a boil, put the egg, cup of oil, seasonings and vinegar in a bowl and beat just enough to break up the egg and mix with other ingredients. Rub the cornstarch smooth in a little cold water, stir into the boiling water and beat constantly until the mixture clears and gets very thick. Add this hot mixture to the contents of the bowl and beat until well mixed. Taste, and add whatever other seasonings indicated.

A fair average value for this kind of mayonnaise is 55 calories per tablespoonful. Quite a difference between the value of this mayonnaise and the type made entirely of oil—and this one is so much better, there is no comparison in my estimation.

Have you tried the prepared crab cocktail put up in glass? A small glass costing 35 cents provides four portions "as is." When you have six or eight to serve it can be stretched by adding a chopped hard-boiled egg, some finely shredded celery, more catsup and some lemon juice.

Do you like delicious steamed pudding? Most families do. If you haven't a good recipe do sit

The WOMAN'S DAY

This is the season of the year when everything that is ordinarily sold as a commodity, suddenly becomes promoted as the ideal Christmas gift.

"Get mother a new washboard and make her happy for life," urges one sign.

And another: "Get Father a new shovel and watch him break down and sob like a child—with joy."

"Get little brother that finger nail brush he has his heart set on." "Make sister glad she was born with six new dish towels"—and so on.

A "PRACTICAL" YULETIDE

I yield to none in believing that we should have all the necessities of housekeeping, and that every labor and time saving device possible should be provided for the home—but I can never forget the forced smile I saw on a woman's face when all the Christmas gifts from her husband and children were the sort that are never destined to get beyond the kitchen.

To be sure, there was an elegant new washing machine—and she always had coveted one—and an electric flat iron, some new aluminum pans and some trick baking dishes, all items she wanted, but the assortment somehow lacked the grace of festivity.

No doubt all during the year she used her new possessions with pleasure—but they were all due to her, anyhow. She was entitled, by her very job, to the equipment it demands. But her Christmas was not what all should have been, and her wistful face registered the fact plainly to a sensitive soul.

CONSIDER FATHER

And incidentally, I think that Father might enjoy something besides shirts, cigars, neckties or handkerchiefs—though these seem to represent the consensus of opinion of great minds as to what his desires are—and I admit that I think one of the least happy excursions I ever embark on are those that include buying presents for men.

Once I acted as a shopping agent for a man who lived across the street, who wanted to do right by his wife and daughter at Christmas time, and was so conscientious he felt inadequate to make the decisions. He gave me $50, with only this word of caution: "Get them pretty things they wouldn't get for themselves. Buy luxuries—don't get anything practical." I did. And felt highly satisfied with my purchases.

I saw him how the gifts were and asked him how the gifts were received. "Everything O. K.," he assured me, "they are crazy about everything." Then as an afterthought, I said, "And what did they get you?"

"A new tablecloth," he replied. And the loyal soul never uttered so much as one complaint—didn't even look at me.

Masons Of Beach City Hold Banquet

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Dec. 17.—The Masons of Huntington Beach and their families held their annual Christmas party in the city auditorium Saturday night.

A Christmas tree contained gifts of candy for the children and a turkey dinner was served to more than 400 guests. Following the dinner a program of five vaudeville acts by professionals was enjoyed. "Billy's Beach Boys" provided music during the banquet and between the vaudeville acts.

CLOTHES SAVINGS

If you mend your clothes before they go to the laundry they will last twice as long. It takes no longer.

GEORGE BANCROFT IN 'MIGHTY' FILM

One of the greatest stories of the underworld, "The Mighty," latest of George Bancroft's mighty dramas, is the current attraction in the Fox Broadway theater. The picture opened there Monday and runs through Thursday night.

Filled with excitement and suspense, "The Mighty" is said to be even more thrilling than "The Docks of New York" and "Dynamite," in which Bancroft was seen here recently.

It is the story of a hard boiled racketeer, who is proud of his fighting ability, although it takes four M. P.'s to bring him into the service when he is drafted into the army. During the war, however, at the end of the conflict returns to this country a hero.

His name known everywhere, he accepts a position as chief of police in a small town, not because he believes in law and order, but to lay plans for his gang to enter the town and rob the three banks.

From this point in the story to the end things move fast and furious. Fighting, love making and thrilling scenes of police and gangsters in action against each other are some of the highlights of the performance.

COLOR AND TUNE IN WEST COAST'S FILM

Colleen Moore in a white wig is the attraction offered in the Fox West Coast theater today and tomorrow. The picture is her newest all-talking production, "Footlights and Fools," and in it, critics say, she does the best work of her splendid career.

A large number of the scenes in the show are in technicolor, the first ever shown of Colleen Moore, while the dance and song numbers sparkle with color and tune.

The story concerns a showgirl, in love with a youngster who has not reached that stage where life appears serious. She promises him she will marry him when he has secured a good position. In the meantime she is made the object of a millionaire's attentions. The plot, unwinding, shows both the youth and the millionaire in a thrilling battle to win the girl.

Frederic March has the part of the millionaire, while the other male lead is played by Raymond Hackett. Both turn in splendid performances. Virginia Lee Corbin also has an important part in the production.

Aside from the feature, an all-talking Mack Sennett comedy and a Fox Movietone newsreel are shown.

THE KNYMITE
STORY BY HAL COCHRAN — PICTURES BY KNICK

At last old Santa's yarn was through. He stood right up and said, "Now you young fellows have had rest enough. Let's get back on the job. In one week more I'm on my way to leave nice toys for Christmas day. Let's go back to the paint shop, 'cause with paint you like to do."

So, to the paint shop they all ran. Wee Clowny said, "I hope I can find something nice to brighten up. I'm pretty good, I think. Get me a doll whose face is white and I will touch it up just right. She'll look much more alive when I have made her cheeks real pink."

"Ah, ha!" said Santa. "I guess you are smart and know a thing or two. You like the little girl doll. That is why you ask for one. Well, I'll find one that looks a sight and you can glue her hair on right. If you will hurry with this task, we'll have some other fun."

In just a moment Clowny found that everyone had gathered 'round to watch him fix the little doll. He blushed a crimson red. This made the bunch laugh loud with glee, "Oh mustn't do that! Mercy me!" said Santa. "Give him credit, when he fixes that doll's head."

And then the Tinles spied a cow. Said Santa, "Come, I'll show you how to fix this funny animal so he'll be set to pack. Oil up his tail so it will flop. Come Clowny, climb right up on top. The oiling will be easier if you are on its back."

"Now, Scouty, get the paint pot quick. We soon will have things looking slick. The cow's all painted but its feet. Just paint them good and brown." While Scouty worked with all his might, wee Clowny oiled the cow up right. And then its tail and head began to wiggle up and down.

SOCIETY

College Y. W. Members Plan Christmas Baskets

Santa Ana junior college Young Women's Christian association members have responded loyally to the appeal of the organization for donations of fruit, nuts, jams, jellies and other foodstuffs, which will be arranged in Christmas baskets for the folk at the county farm.

Those who have offered donations are Miss Elisabeth Hurd, Miss Hazel Guilbert, Miss Mary McHenry, Miss Ruby Wagner, Miss Virginia Thomas, Miss Helen Kee, Miss Helen Hendricks, Miss Marjorie Adams, Miss Louise Lillian McDonald, Miss Katherine Spicer, Miss Fay Stinson, Miss Lavinia Compton, Miss LeVonne Olsen and Miss Dorothy Harman.

Junior College Students Plan Annual Dance

Adapting the silver-sprayed tumbledown at the Santa Ana Country club as the motif for their decorations, Santa Ana junior college students will make the clubhouse the scene of their Christmas dance, Saturday night.

Arrangements for the dance are under the direction of Miss Clara Kate Owens, chairman of social activities, who is being assisted in her preparations of favors and incidentals by a group of students including Baxter Geeting, Jack Sweetnam, Jack Dutton, Stewart McPherson, Miss Ada Marie Hendrickson, Miss Florence Brownridge, Miss Marguerite Lentz, Miss Marcia Huber, Miss Dorothy Harman, Miss Jackie Harris, Miss Ellen Snehley and others.

CHURCH SOCIETIES

Golden Rule Class
Mrs. Oscar Kurtz of 640 North Ross street entertained members of the Golden Rule class of Spurgeon Memorial church in a charming manner, when they gathered at her lovely new home recently. Several interesting games were enjoyed, after which delicious refreshments were served.

Monthly Meeting
The Women's Missionary society of the United Brethren church held its monthly meeting in the church recently. The subject for the afternoon's study was "Jesus, the Light of the World" and was led by Mrs. H. A. Colby.

The Scripture lesson was taken from prophecies concerning the birth of Christ as recorded in Isaiah, Zachariah and Micah and was read by Mrs. Sidnam, Mrs. Hazen and Mrs. Emerson.

Little Misses Roberta Emerson, Marjorie Louise Dennie and Dorothy Gammell sang "Away in the Manger."

A beautiful Christmas candle lighting service was given by Mesdames J. H. Noble, Mrs. Jackson, P. W. Gamble, W. O. Sidnam, R. W. Harlow, C. H. Gilbert, L. C. Morgan, Scott Wiles and Jamison. The whole society joined in singing "The Light of the World is Jesus."

Mrs. W. O. Sidnam, president of the society, had charge of the business session and she read a letter from the Rev. and Mrs. C. C. Witmer, missionaries in the Philippines. This was followed by a discussion of the most interesting articles in the "Evangelist."

Orange
In New Home
Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rodieck, who were married recently at Artesia, have established their home on North Glassell street. Mrs. Rodieck was Miss Frances Glover, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Glover of this city. Mr. Rodieck is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Rodieck of West Collins avenue.

The young people were married last week at the home of Mrs. J. L. Glover of Artesia, the Rev. F. J. Kluth of that city reading the service. Only the immediate families of the bride and groom were present.

A reception at the J. A. Rodieck home in Orange followed the ceremony.

Wedding Solemnized in Fullerton

Miss Jewell Grammer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Grammer, of Placentia, and Dean Kephart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Kephart, of Fullerton, were united in marriage at a simple ceremony which was performed Saturday evening at the parsonage of the Presbyterian church, Fullerton. The Rev. Graham C. Hunter, pastor of the church, officiated.

The young couple spent the weekend at Hermosa Beach, and returned Monday to their new home on Darlington avenue, Buena Park.

Luncheon Given for High School Faculty

In order to gain proficiency in the preparation and serving of luncheons, members of the Santa Ana high school cooking classes, under the direction of Miss Myrtle Stark, have been giving a series of luncheons for members of the high school faculty.

Those who attended the last luncheon were Miss Lula B. Finley, Miss Anna L. Trythall, Miss Ruth Frothingham and Miss Frances Lapum.

Brea

Birthday Party
Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Brown entertained in their home on the Stearns lease of the Union Oil company Tuesday evening with a surprise birthday party given in observance of the 12th birthday anniversary of their daughter, Betty June Brown.

The evening was spent in music and games. Miss Betty was the recipient of many lovely gifts. Those invited were her teachers and classmates of the seventh grade of school.

Those present were Miss Marie Beck, principal; Miss Kathryn Towne, teacher at Brea grammar school; Virginia Haynes, Jane Evans, Evelyn Carlson, Betty Davis, Loretta Stine, Gloria Melner, Bernice Taylor, Phyllis Manning, Lois La Mole, Eleanor Angie, Concepcion Perez, Marion Choate, Clifford Hanson, Harold Tipton, Eugene Washburn, Frank Peptone, Gerald McDonald, Mack Reardon and Arthur Perce.

Refreshments were served in the dining room, which was decorated in the season's colors. A large birthday cake centered the table, brick ice cream and birthday cake were served.

Frolic Enjoyed
A sophomore Christmas frolic was given Tuesday evening at Brea-Olinda high school. To gain admittance to the party each one was required to bring a toy and these are to be given to the children of the poor. Dancing was the main feature of the evening's program.

In a prize walk, Miss Myrna Manning and Melvin Rankin were declared "the winners," each receiving a lovely gift. Refreshments of fruit punch and wafers were served by the committee, Miss Myrna May, Sallie Culp, Edith Mallory and George Henigan.

Attend Dance
A group of Brea Junior Lions and their ladies attended the central council meeting and dinner dance held in the Ontario hotel at Ontario Thursday evening.

Those going were Teddy Woodward, Miss Georgia Grant, Bert Rightmeyer, Miss Doris Forbes, Jake Bergman, Miss Gladys Merriman, Earl Ryan, Miss Jane Burnette, Frank Holly, Miss Doris Massey, Kenneth Varner, Nondys Smith, Charles Swan, Gwenivere Reed, Joe Tremblay, Miss Ethel Peak, Clarence Wise, Miss Kathryn Mitchell and Adrain McCabe.

Sunset Beach Club Plans Party Dec. 20
SUNSET BEACH, Dec. 17.—The Women's club of Sunset Beach will entertain at a "hard times" party in the Clark building December 20 for the benefit of the club building fund. The public is invited. The club held a "rook food sale" at the post office Saturday, selling all the food contributed and netting a substantial sum for the club.

BOB SHULER, IN ADDRESS IN SANTA ANA, SAYS CHURCH HAS LOST FAITH IN GOD'S POWER

let a wrong thing come out on top and I know it—that's why I fight those crooks, down here in Los Angeles—because I know that God's coming out on top in the ultimate. You folks who get pessimistic read this verse, "He hath not left himself without witness." There'll be somebody standing for the Lord as long as the world goes right.

"The university, the college, the library, science and philosophy have done marvelous things, but the grace of God has accomplished more than all these things combined. We were not created to be dirty and common. I was what is known as a mountain white and I was saved in the little log church in those Blue Ridge mountains of Virginia, but I'm here to tell you that there is no 'poor white trash' in the kingdom of God. You're not common if you belong to the Savior.

"God started us right. He started us up and we never would have needed a savior today if we had behaved ourselves. The fall was not because God wanted us to be dirty. We must be born again and the thing that God wants us to be is good and wholesome and true.

"One day a farmer was hunting. She shot an eagle and brought him down in the barnyard. The bird's wing was wounded but it was not killed. Unable to fly, the eagle trailed around with its broken pinion and associated with the geese of the dirty yard, often seeking the mud-hole and attempting to swim in the blue scum with them.

"When the eagle's wing was healed the habit to associate with the geese had become so intense that he thought he was one of them and did not try to fly away. One day a wild, free scream was heard in the heavens. The healed eagle merely looked up and then returned to the mud-hole with the geese. A second time the wild, free scream was heard from the sky and then memory returned. The eagle followed the cry and lifted its wings and soared above the barn and soared above the farm.

"Christian men and women, you too, were made for the cliffs. Let Jesus take you up to the mountain tops away from the mudholes of life and stand on the topmost pinnacles with Him."

The Rev. Mr. Shuler was introduced by Earle F. Wilde, the "Caruso" of sacred song, who read the following original verses especially written for the occasion:

"Who has his friends, his praises to shout?
Who has his enemies, in church and out?
Who has his friends, his praises to shout?
Who has his enemies, in church and out?"

Bob Shuler.

MCCORD SPEAKER AT FULLERTON BANQUET

FULLERTON, Dec. 17.—Jack McCord, former All-American guard of the University of Illinois and a member of the national football rules committee, will be the main speaker at the football banquet for the Fullerton high school and junior college football players tonight at 6:30 at McFarland's cafe.

McCord, who was the umpire at the Notre Dame-U. S. C. football game this fall in Chicago, is nationally known as a football and basketball official and has officiated at many outstanding athletic events.

Approximately 140 boys with an equal number of men as their hosts are expected at the banquet.

WESTMINSTER
WESTMINSTER, Dec. 17.—The bazaar and chicken dinners given Friday in the I. O. O. F. hall by the Busy Bee club of the Rebekahs, was successful in all ways and lasted throughout the day and evening, two meals being served in that time by Mrs. Nell Parr, chairman of the committee, and her assistants. Mrs. Alice Hare was in charge of the booth of fancy work and about $300 was taken in, $24.75 of which was clear.

The Westminster Camp Fire members enjoyed a party Friday evening in the home of one of their members, Virginia Ferguson, and after the business meeting, games were played and the girls and their guardian, Miss Florence Boosey, were served dainty light refreshments by Mrs. Ferguson, mother of Virginia, who was assisted by Mrs. John M. Angell.

Attending the party were Rose Basse, Mary Eastwood, Mary Lou Hare, Hazel Hill, Hattie Edwards, Jean Baxter, Virginia Ferguson, Miss Boosey, Mrs. Angell and Mrs. Ferguson.

Westminster boys' and girls' basketball teams played their first game of the league series on Friday.

CENTERING SALAD
When you remove a gelatine salad upon the serving plate, sometimes it slithers in the wrong direction and is difficult to move without breaking. Put your serving plate under cold water, shake off all visible dampness, before sliding the gelatine upon it. There is just enough moisture left to make the gelatine less reluctant to move and you can center it easily.

ARE YOU SICK?
Our Chinese Herbs have cured thousands of people suffering from ailments which others have tried to cure and failed. One or two trials will convince the most skeptical person. For any chronic ailment of both men or women, we never fail to get the results.

CYPRESS

CYPRESS, Dec. 17.—Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ball, of Los Angeles, and Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Baldwin, of Santa Monica, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Miller.

The ball ground of Cypress is being graded getting it ready to be made into a modern ball ground. There will be a grandstand and plenty of seats.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Gaston entertained one evening recently with a dance in observance of the birthday anniversary of their son, William. Refreshments of sandwiches, cocoa and cake were served. Those invited were John Shea, Harold Appleby, Wilbur McKee, Earl Barnett, Herman Brown, Walter and Ellen Santhoff, Margaret Inskeep, Leonard McCarnes, Henry Keefer, Freida Priddy, Doris and Grace Tedford and Eleanor Gaston.

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Christopheron, of Eureka, Utah, are visiting Mesdames D. T. and F. T. Mackaye.

Joe Dowd, of Fullerton, who owns the Chick-Inn on Lincoln boulevard, has reopened for business.

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Tillman, of Palsade, Colo., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ray Kinder. Mr. Tillman is a brother of Mrs. Kinder.

Mrs. A. Wolfgram was called to Minneapolis on account of the illness of her daughter.

Mrs. Grace Davis and her brothers have taken heir to the estate of an aunt, Miss Grace G. Stoddard, of Scotland. Miss Stoddard visited here a few years ago when she made a tour of the world.

Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Tidd, of the Club Guild, entertained with a turkey dinner recently. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cooper, of Buena Park; Harry Taylor and Leland Jones of Los Angeles.

6 FAMILIES MADE HAPPY OH BOY!

From Saturday noon until last night 6 persons drove home from here in new cars, that is, new to them, to take the wife and kids for a little spin. All bought good cars. I tell you, there is a lot of satisfaction in selling good dependable Used Cars, in this day and age of the "auto rouge and lipstick."

Every customer we expect to keep, and then when the time comes to replace the bus, we are selling him now, we want him to be so well pleased that it will be pretty hard for any other dude in the automobile business to sell him anything.

THEM'S OUR PRINCIPLES

We have three cars "being cut" in price 25 Bucks each day until sold, and they are good cars, and you can buy them "At Your Own Price."

We have several other splendid cars to offer now. Come in, look them over, let us explain what we mean by "Buy A Car At Your Own Price."

Losing at this game of mine, "just isn't in the cards" for you.

EVENING SALUTATION

"It is difficult for men in high office to avoid the malady of self-delusion. They are always surrounded by worshippers. They are constantly, and for the most part sincerely, assured of their greatness."

—Calvin Coolidge.

THE "EASY WAY"

Dr. Jose Joaquin Terrazas, Mexican engineer and mathematician, has developed an easy and agreeable method of learning to multiply and divide. Forty years ago, it is stated, he decided he would improve on the prevailing methods of teaching multiplication and division. He has also evolved easy methods for learning long division.

The method is now being tried in an experimental way by over a hundred school teachers with 1500 children. Looking at the matter in one way there seems nothing to be gained from a harder method of learning the multiplication table if an easier method is available. However, a little mental training, a few hard things mastered, is not bad training for later life.

One wonders just what the individual would be good for who, throughout his training, had always had easy and agreeable things to do.

He would never learn for one thing that it is far better, if something disagreeable must be done, to do it and have it out of the way, than to put it off and suffer the mind harassment. One learns finally that it is better to learn that multiplication table or bit of poetry required for the mathematics or English class and have it over with than to keep the work haunting the mind until it cannot be put off any longer.

Most normal individuals will learn this lesson finally, and it is good to learn it early in life. Those who are taught to look for the easy method all the time waste quite a lot of time later on looking for the easy way out or around difficulties. The bluff, the sham, the little white lie and worse are concomitants of those who have learned that there is an "easy way."

A woman magazine writer says marriage is the finest profession. We have noticed, however, that many people who follow it retire while still quite young.

AUSTRALIA WANTS OIL

In an effort to stimulate the discovery of much-needed oil in Australia that government has offered a bonus of five thousand pounds to the person who first produces 100,000 barrels of oil there. This amounts to $24,401, to make it most understandable to our own geologists.

Australia is not leaving a stone unturned in its effort to make itself self-sufficient in the matter of motor fuel. In addition to scouring the country for hidden oil deposits, earnest attempts have been made to discover some means of producing motor fuel from the resources of the country. Australia has more automobiles per capita than any other country in the world except the United States and Canada. It is a continent of almost three million square miles, having a population of a little over six million. On January first 1928 there were 464,225 automobiles, motor trucks and busses registered.

Some idea of the number of automobiles per capita in the United States in excess of those in other countries will be noted when the figure of 23,253,882, the number of automobiles in the United States is compared with 464,225, the number in Australia.

There is no production of petroleum in Australia; and the nearest supply is 3900 miles away. One cannot wonder at their desire to stimulate the discovery. Furthermore, the proposition is not hopeless because Dr. W. G. Woolnough, the geologist of the commonwealth, has voiced the opinion that "there seems to be a reasonable chance in spite of many disappointments and false trails that Australia may yet enter the ranks of oil-producing countries."

A ladies' wrestling club has been formed in London. You have to learn how to defend yourself when you go to a dance nowadays.

ADULT EDUCATION

Until recent years education was confined exclusively to children and young people. One of the great movements of the day is the education of adults. It was once thought that when youth had completed its education, it could shift for itself. Society could go along intelligently and efficiently if the young were properly trained. Of course, it would require a generation to accomplish a given purpose, but then it was never thought that such matters as changing society in any quicker way could be accomplished except through the young.

But we began to see that youthful education did not teach the adult to function in society as he ought. The adult background of experience was not made serviceable in discharging and meeting the responsibilities of the hour. It was to make the experience of adult life function in present day society that adult education was projected. And now in all the great centers of the country we find organizations for adult education. Many universities have extension courses, thus making the university a factor in enlightening the adult mind far beyond the campus. The government itself is educating the farmer through its rural agencies. We have come to see that it is not necessary to wait a whole generation to effect a change in society and government. The adult who has his place in society already can be educated to effect improvement or change.

Conferences have been organized in most parts of the country where all the pressing problems of the day are discussed in the light of facts and tendencies so that the adult may act intelligently.

ly. Conferences are held. Classes are organized. The prospects are that this system of adult education is going to make for a better understanding of all public questions. Prejudice begotten of ignorance and misunderstanding will not play so large a part in deciding questions of public concern. Politics will benefit by it. Religion will not lead into so many blind alleys as now. Trade and commerce will be carried on much more efficiently. With the raising of the adult intelligence this may be made a much better world in a much shorter period of time.

A complaint in a Detroit newspaper says the motorists are running down the squirrels at Belle Isle. Maybe the squirrels are chasing them.

THE DEBT OF THE STUDENT

When you reduce the matter of a college education to dollars and cents, it quickly becomes apparent that the college student owes a very real debt to his college—a debt that puts him under a deep moral obligation to make the most of his opportunities.

The annual report of the University of Chicago, for example, shows that students' fees—tuition and the like—provide just under forty per cent of the university's total operating income.

In other words, for every four dollars that the student spends on his college course, the university spends six more. It is paying more of the cost of education than he is.

Obviously, then, the student who refuses to study, who spends his time as an idler and a "collegiate" do-nothing, is literally cheating his college. For it should be noted that similar conditions prevail at every college and university in the land. No student really pays his way.

The Mark of Prejudice

Imperial Valley Press
During a recent football game one of the best known radio announcers interrupted his broadcast to state that he had received telegrams from persons listening in who stated that he was not giving a fair broadcast of the game.

These telegram senders, you understand, were persons sitting by a nice warm fireside hundreds of miles from the gridiron, where a north wind had sent the temperature down below freezing.

They, of course, couldn't see a single play on the field, since television has not yet been perfected; yet because the team they wanted to win the game was not walking away with the game, according to the broadcast, they decided the announcer was prejudiced and promptly phoned a telegram.

Possibly that's fine for the telegraph companies, but it indicates a most common fault of the American people. Too many of them think that anyone who says anything contrary to their preconceived opinions, whether it be even a report of what happens on a football field, are prejudiced.

How often we ascribe improper motives to those with whom we disagree. We may know very little about some particular question, yet that doesn't prevent us from talking a lot about it and accuse all those who have different opinions of being prejudiced.

Too many of us think that some ulterior motive is back of some of the most trivial actions of those with whom we associate.

The real mark of prejudice is to accuse someone else of it.

Honor Well Bestowed on Mme. Curie

Passenger Star-News
France has one virtue that is outstanding—profound appreciation of its great men and women. It has almost defied its military heroes. And it is not forgetting its great figures of peace. Its artists, authors, and inventors—its explorers and discoverers—all are remembered and memorialized.

While Mme. Curie lives, she is being showered with honors. Paris reports indicate that this renowned woman, co-discoverer of radium, is to be raised to the dignity of Commander of the Legion of Honor. She will be the first woman upon whom this high rank of the order will have been conferred.

Well may France and the world bow at the shrine of this simple-hearted great woman—a distinguished daughter of Poland, which land has given the world many illustrious men and women—artists, authors, scientists.

Mme. Curie and her lamented husband suffered the traditional hardships of genius. For four years in a small shack outside Paris they experimented. They often went hungry. But they were courageous souls. Poverty did not daunt them. Always they had before them the vision of the glories of the discovery they sought. The triumph came, in the fulness of time. Then came fame. But her days of glory have not spoiled Mme. Curie. She is the same quiet, unostentatious little body she always has been.

The world does well to honor such high servants of humanity as Mme. Curie.

Diplomatic Shakeup in Latin America

San Bernardino Sun
There is a general shakeup in this country's diplomatic representation in Central and South America, with numerous new appointees. All of these are "career men" men already in the service, who have had training for the work.

This is a concrete result of President Hoover's post-election tour of Latin-America. Evidently he concluded from that tour that the United States needs first of all, in that quarter of the world, trained diplomats instead of amateurs of the "shirt-sleeve" type.

"The service" will naturally agree with him. Probably the public will, too. There is still a lurking, sentimental regard in the United States for the plain, simple American who is plunged into a difficult diplomatic job, and who drolls up his sleeves, goes to it and makes good. But the fact is that the untrained, provincial citizen doesn't always make good in such jobs, by any means. And the same Americans who expect him to do so would hesitate to plunge him into any job at home for which he had no training.

It is well to get rid of diplomatic formalists and red-tape artists. But beyond that, training for special work should count in diplomacy as well as anywhere. And it becomes increasingly clear that Latin-America is one region of the world where it doesn't do Uncle Sam any good to send a blunt, curt, go-getting type of American, without tact, sympathy or understanding of the natives and their problems.

DOUBLE JEOPARDY

Although deeply revering the statutes myself,
I do not hold a mandate for others.
And frequently keep a small jug on the shelf
For the use of my bibulous brothers.
For the law of the land my respect has been strong,
And my conscience has known no disquiet.
But regarding hard liquor, I thought it was wrong
To sell, not to buy it.

I know from the headlines I daily peruse
That the sipping of gin or whisky
Or any hard stuff that one happens to use
Is surely sufficiently risky.
For those who since 1919 have pursued
The bottle-straw path of the temptor
The fresh printed labels need hardly include
A caveat emptor.

The peril of purchase I hold is enough
For any who may be intending
To pay for as much as one shot of the stuff
That the popular night clubs are vending.
But now a disheartening rumor I hear
Which it cruelly rains me to dwell on,
That a man who goes home with a bottle of beer
May be branded a felon.

However, there still is a glimmer of hope;
In spite of this plan to reform us
No government ever can possibly cope
With a problem which looms so enormous.
It may for a time have our nerves on the rack,
Its sherlocks may constantly "trail us."
But it cannot enforce such a law, for the lack Of prisons to jail us!

We Prosper Only By Planning To ProsperBy WILLIAM TRUFANT FOSTER and WADDILL CATCHINGS

"Test the baby's bath!" shouted the "experienced" nurse.
"Sure I test it. I put the little dear in. If he turns red, it's too hot. If he turns blue, it's too cold."
Similar methods are common among "experienced" business men. But they won't do any longer, says Dr. Julius Klein, Assistant Secretary of Commerce. Business is too sensitive to be plunged into condition which may be either scalding or freezing, and seldom happen to be exactly right.

"Guesswork," he declares, "is gambling, and the hunch is a delusion." Business men must know what actually is happening. They must have precise knowledge of operations, costs, methods, trends.

Dr. Klein implies that, having gained all this information, the business man should act on it. So he should. And having acted on it, he might tell Dr. Klein about the colored boy who, in answer to a long and scathing tirade, replied simply, "All them things you says I am, you is."

It might well be pointed out that "all them things" which Dr. Klein says the business man should know and observe, the Federal Government also should know and observe about its own business. The Assistant Secretary of Commerce would have his reply right at hand. For the conferences which Mr. Hoover has just held show that the Government is determined not only to point out trends of employment but, by right-timed public expenditures, to help control these trends. It will depend neither on "native shrewdness" nor on hunches. It will decide when to push forward and when to hold back public works by methods of measurement as reliable as a bath thermometer.

Dr. Klein is right. Prosperity is a result of definite, ascertainable causes. We can prosper by planning to prosper. And that is precisely what the President is doing now.

CRISSMAS AT THE SMITHS

Mr. Smith. Well, its nearly Crissmas agen.

Mrs. Smith. Yes yes, its a small werid after all. Last Crissmas dont seem like last year alreddy.

Little Alferd. It seems like 5 years ago to me.

Mr. Smith. What do you want for Crissmas, Alferd? I expect to see Santa Claws tomorrow and Ill tell him for you if you keep on being a good boy.

Alferd. Tell him to bring me a baby brother.

Mrs. Smith. O my goodness such a deer.

Mr. Smith. Why Alferd, dont you realize you got eleven brothers and 6 sisters alreddy? Ask for something diffrent, why dont you?

Mrs. Smith. I should say so.

Alferd. I havent got a baby brother and I want one.

Mr. Smith. Now Alferd, with 18 children in the family alreddy it keeps me pritty bizzy with the high cost of living going up insted of coming down.

Mrs. Smith. Now Alferd, think of all the sewing and washing and scolding and picking up I haft to do even as it is. Dont be selfish, Alferd.

Alferd. I want a baby brother and thats the only thing I want.

Mr. Smith. Alferd, the time has came to tell you something. There is no Santa Claws.

Alferd. Thats diffrent. Then give me a sled and a tool chest and a pair of ice skates and a bysickle and a punching bag and a football suit and a baseball suit and a cowboy suit.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith. With pleasure.

The end.

Thoughts On Modern Life

LEARNING-BY-LIVING EDUCATION

Yesterday I spoke of an old education that was dominated by a philosophy of stuff and store—the teacher stuffing the student with information, the student storing the information for later adult use.

Today I want to speak of a new education that is dominated by a philosophy of learning by living rather than learning for living.

This new education dislikes the phrase "learning for living" because it seems to suggest that we can postpone living until we have learned how to live, and that after we get out of school we can live on what we learned in school.

In the old education, the school was the home of learning.

In the new education, the school is simply one of the instruments of learning.

In the old education, the youngster learned how to live intelligently as an adult by memorizing information and rules for later use.

In the new education, the youngster gets his best training for living intelligently as an adult by being helped to live intelligently as a youngster.

In the old education, youth was a preparation for life.

In the new education, youth is considered a part of life.

In the old education, the school
monopolized education, and education was something that happened to children in school rooms.

In the new education, the school
simply manages and directs education, which is seen to be something that is happening to children and grown-ups all the while, outside as well as inside school rooms.

Franklin Bobbitt, whom I quoted yesterday, quite accurately defines this new conception of education as "current right living."

And he says the following wise things about this new education:

"This practice in high-grade living of a sort appropriate to one's age, nature, and situation should be going on all the time, whether one is at home or at school. The school will provide some of the opportunity for current practice of these activities; the home and the general community life will have to provide a still larger portion.

The school will have the child five or six hours a day; the home, eighteen or nineteen hours a day.

The school will have him twenty-five or thirty hours a week; the home will have him about one hundred and forty hours a week. It is clear that if he is really to arrive at high-grade behavior, then he must certainly practice it at home. But the school provides the expert workers and must take the lead in the management of this education. It must provide the patterns of activities of all proper sorts; give information needed for self-guidance; awaken interests, evaluations, desires and ambitions;

stimulate, guide, supervise; the pupil's practice in the activities while at the school; and advise and cooperate with homes in the latter's discharge of their responsibility."

Here is a singularly clear statement of the new education.

OUR CHILDREN

By ANGELO PATRI

COMPANY MANNERS

It is customary in all good households to tell the children that the company is coming and that they must put on their company manners. Turn about is fair play. I would remind all grown-ups that when there is company it is their duty to put on their company manners.

It is not considered good form in the society of babyhood for a grown-up to pick up a baby and squeeze the breath out of him, dance him up and down, toss him in the air, slap him on the back until he nearly chokes. It isn't done in good society in babyhood.

It is bad form to take a child by the shoulders, lead him into the light and scan his features critically and then call over your shoulder to Aunt Mary Ann, "Can't you see a resemblance to Uncle Peter?" NO? Why he is the image of him. Look at that nose, and those ears. Why you'd have to be blind not to know him by Peter."

That's an unpardonable error in childhood. Unpardonable.

It is considered in very bad taste to ask a child what percent he got in arithmetic and then say pensively, "Well, he takes after your side, Jack. Our family was always very keen about arithmetic. I remember we always took the medals. Your sister Janet never got by long division, did she? An awfully nice girl she was.
Never got a decent mark in arithmetic though. What ever happened to her?" That's not done. Simply not done.

Nor will it do to say, "Tommy, come over here and stand up beside Jake. I want to see just which one of you is the taller. M-p-m.

Tommy, you're going to be a little fellow, I can see that. Our Jake is simply growing out of bounds.
He'll have to have long pants next time. Let's see. There's just about three weeks' difference in your ages. I remember you were born the first week in August and our Jake came along three weeks behind you. But he's been catching up ever since. Eh, Jake?" No, no.
That is not good manners. Not good at all. Tommy will want to murder you in your bed and Jake will aid and abet him.

And when you pull up your chair to the well-dressed table and shake out your napkin, DON'T turn your head to gaze into the sulky face of Jane Marie and ask her if she doesn't love her spin-ach. She doesn't. She hates it and you know it. It is not good form to press a wound. So try to keep your eyes away from Janet and the spinach.

When you see Tommy reaching for his third piece of bread it is NOT considered good taste to exclaim, "I see Bob lost his appetite and found an elephant's." Bob has heard that joke a good many times and each time he hates it more.
He eats because he is hungry.
Don't you wish you did the same?

Now then, instead of asking the children to put on their company manners and eat their spinach and drink milk and slip softly up to bed, let us ask the company to put on their very best manners and be the kind of company children like to meet.

MILAN DECREE

On Dec. 17, 1807, Napoleon issued his famous Milan Decree as a part of his commercial policy to shut England out from all connection with the continent of Europe.

By the Milan Decree, any vessel, of whatever nation, that had been searched by an English ship, or had submitted to be sent on a voyage to England, or paid any duty to the English government, was to be declared demoralized and treated as English.

Napoleon's policy, known as the Continental System, had begun with the Berlin Decree in 1806, declaring the British Isles in a state of blockade and prohibiting all commerce or correspondence with them.

Every Englishman found in a country occupied by French troops or by their allies was declared a prisoner of war; all merchandise belonging to an Englishman was made lawful prize; and all trade in English goods was entirely prohibited.

As a result, many branches of manufacture sprang up on the continent. On the other hand, price of foreign goods rose to an extraordinary height, the daily comfort of the middle classes was seriously affected, and the then prosperous American carrying trade was practically ruined.
